THE 1930 WITTENBERGER

PUBLISHED BY THE
WITTENBERG
COLLEGE AT SPRINGFIELD

FOREWORD

Panorama . . .
Classes, co-eds, collegiana . . .
Close harmony at dawn . . .
"Hold that line!" . . .
Vistas of action and glamour . . .
of youth . . . at college . . .
Four fleeting years, and then
Commencement . . . and a "silver chord of memory" . . .

If this volume be judged in terms of accepted values it is a failure. We are not statisticians, compiling a record of facts and faces. For facts and faces may become as ashes . . . and dust.

Rather would we be idyllic, singing of Today . . . as we see it. Rather would we be sentimentalists, building out of eloquent nothingness an interpretation, an apotheosis, of the Wittenberg of 1930. Certainly we shall be repaid if we shall have evolved an intangible value . . . a "silver chord of memory" for the Future.

Administration

DR. REES EDGAR TULLOSS became the seventh president of Wittenberg College in 1920. His record during the ten years of his administration constitutes the biography of an aggressive administrator. Splendid new buildings in a wisely planned and carefully landscaped campus offer material evidence of his success as a builder. Systematized organization marks his ability as an executive. Love and admiration of men in all walks of life testify to his qualities as a man.

Well endowed by nature with those characteristics which make a leader of men, Dr. Tulloss acquired the training and temperament which equip him so admirably for his service to the institution.

Dr. Tulloss graduated from Wittenberg in 1906, leaving a splendid record of achievement in athletics, activities, and scholarship. Graduate work was pursued at Hamma Divinity School, Harvard University, and Johns Hopkins University.

A pretentious building program, greatly increased enrolment, and a successful endowment drive are some of the outstanding features of the decade under the guidance of "Prexy" Tulloss.

Academic and Social Supervision

Ruth Immel, A.M.
Dean of Women

Charles G. Shatzer Sc.D.
Dean of the College

Benjamin H. Pershing, Ph.D.
Dean of Men

FREQUENTLY the titles Dean of the College, Dean of Men, and Dean of Women, are synonymous with a concept of disciplinary authority. At Wittenberg these offices are filled by executives of a different type. They maintain an attitude of kindly helpfulness, and still do not tolerate disciplinary laxity.

It requires a woman of unusual ability to perform the duties of the Dean of Women in a co-educational institution. Firmness, sympathy, tact, efficiency, are a few of the necessary attributes. Dean Ruth Immell has combined these attributes to a marked degree in coping with the problems of her position since 1924.

Charles Gallitin Shatzer, Dean of the College, is general supervisor of academic matters. Educated at Wittenberg College, Susquehanna College, and Chicago University, Dr. Shatzer returned to his alma mater as Professor of Geology. He became Dean of the College in 1914. Undergraduates since that time have known him as a scholarly, human, and eminently fair administrator.

Benjamin H. Pershing, as Dean of Men, has contributed much to the religious and social well being of this college community. Dean Pershing has been a source of encouragement and assistance in his present position since 1926.

Class of 1930

Ross Romig Parchen Moyer Wood

James C. Olson

THE Senior Class completes its sojourn of four years at Wittenberg College with mingled feelings. Graduation brings to us the satisfaction of a completed task. It brings to us the exhilaration of freedom which is followed immediately by the sense of a new and larger responsibility. It brings us face to face with the realization that we have before us another course, a course for which our college work shall be but a foundation—a course that will require a life time in its completion.

We graduate, realizing that life with its trials and problems will often make us cast envious eyes upon our years at Wittenberg. Graduation gives us, however, a new confidence, a confidence that makes no problem—as it presents itself—seem insurmountable.

Skull and Chain

Morris Olson Raymer Draving

TO BETTER "recognize meritorious activity of men in scholarship, campus popularity, and activity during their four years in college" motivated the founding of Skull and Chain, senior men's honorary fraternity, in 1922. Each year the members choose their successors for the following year at a Tap Day ceremony.

This year the organization numbers six men, four active and two honorary members. Honorary membership has been conferred on Dr. Rees Edgar Tulloss and Dr. C. G. Shatzer. Active members are Earl Morris, James Olson, Stanley Raymer, and Howard Draving.

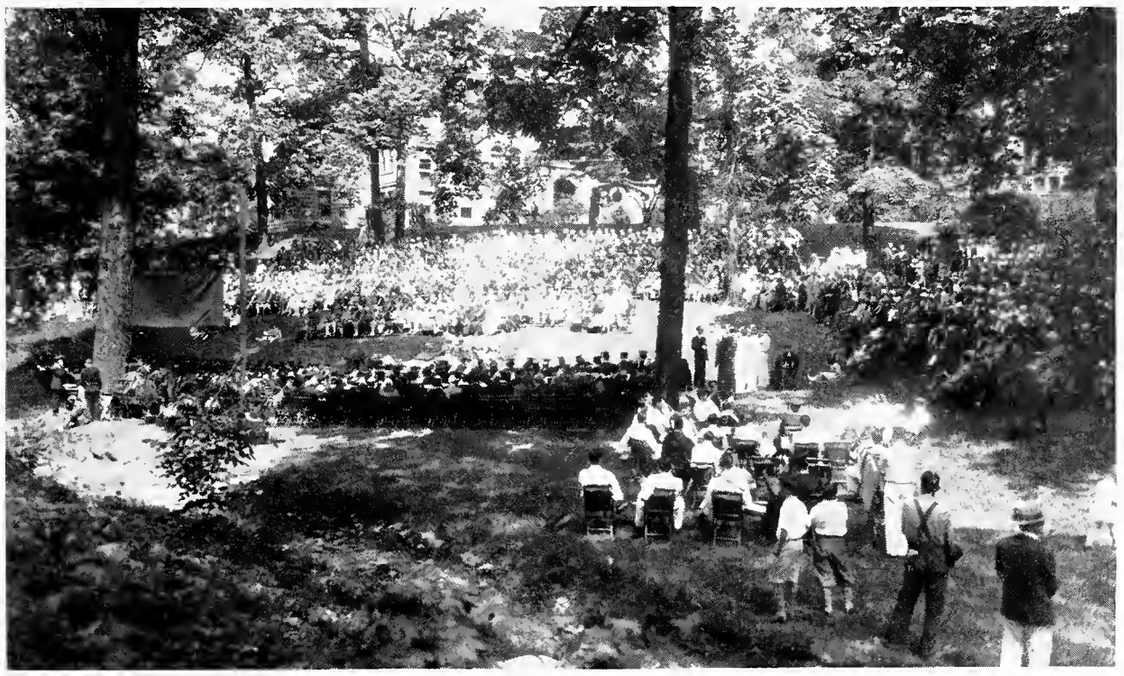
SCHOLARSHIP, leadership, character, and service are the qualities by which membership in Arrow and Mask is determined. The organization was founded in 1925 to fill the need for a senior women's honorary society.

Arrow and Mask plays a major part in staging the annual Founder's Day program. Each spring the members of Arrow and Mask stage the beautiful Tap Day ceremonies when members for the following year are chosen.

Dean Immell, Miss Cadwgan, and Miss MacPherson are honorary faculty members of the group.

1930 Commencement Week



Commencement scene 1929

COMMENCEMENT WEEK activities for 1930 will begin with the President's reception to the Senior Class, Friday, May 29, at 6:00 p. m. Baccalaureate sermon and the Senior Class program will occur on Sunday and Monday.

A meeting of the Board of Directors, and the annual campus play are scheduled for Tuesday, June 2.

The program for Wednesday includes the Class Play, Alumni Class Luncheons, another Board of Directors meeting, the brilliant Alma Mater Pageant, and an alumni reception and dinner.

Commencement, Thursday, June 4, climaxes the week's calendar. Constituting what is perhaps the largest class in the history of the institution, the graduates of 1930 will receive their degrees in the historic hollow near Science Hall. The commencement program is scheduled to begin at 9:00 a. m.

AS USUAL, a group of unsuspecting matriculators invaded Wittenberg College in September, 1927. The class survived the "king for a day" treatment of Greek letter clans and the horrible routine of registration with equal insouisance. Officers were elected, freshmen hats worn and discarded, a sophomore hop promoted—and two years were gone.

During its third year the class sponsored the publication of this book, and the presentation of a class play—neither of which will achieve immortality in some future outline of history. The class has taken one forward step in deciding not to present a senior class play; too bad they can't vote on whether to publish another yearbook.

And so the boys and girls enter the last lap. Soon the children who, as freshmen, reported "interest and spirit," will be vested with all the dignity of caps and gowns. "And so wags the world."

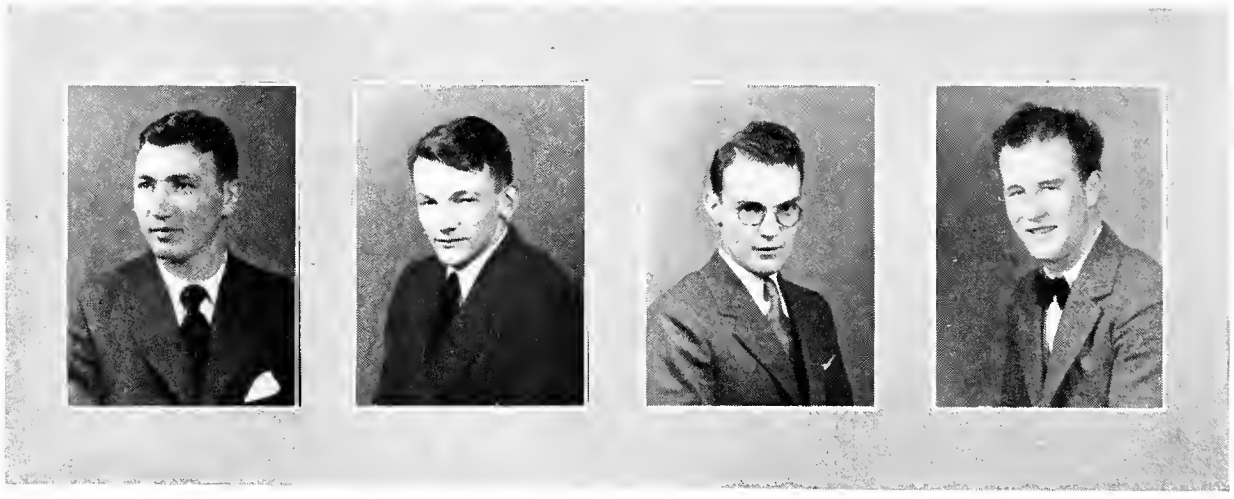
Pick and Pen



Kish McElroy Keck Edwards

PICK AND PEN, founded in 1922, is the Junior men's honorary society at Wittenberg College. An outstanding event of the year is the Tap Day service in May in the college chapel.

The purpose of Pick and Pen is to give honor where honor is due among the third year men. Membership is based upon three collegiate virtues: leadership, activities, and development of character.

The members at present are: Alex Kish, Merrit McElroy, Albert Keck, and William Edwards.

Kish holds letters in baseball, basketball, and football. McElroy is vice president of the Y. M. C. A. and is business manager of the Wittenberger. Keck is a member of Tau Kappa Alpha and an intercollegiate debater. He was president of this year's Student Chest and holds membership in Boost "W" and the Y. M. C. A. cabinet. Edwards was captain of the football team in 1929 and will pilot the team again this year.

This brief summary shows the varied fields of activity of Pick and Pen members.

Smith Corwin Poole Harris

FRESHMAN week, beginning September 7, 1928, saw the "largest class of first-year students that ever entered Wittenberg" begin its career. Officers were elected during the second week of the year—and the group remained organized but idle through the remainder of two semesters.

The class did show that it was well endowed with athletes. The freshman football team gave the varsity men of the fighting outcasts plenty of trouble in scrimmages throughout the year.

This year the class has been called upon to decide two weighty problems; first, that of publishing a college yearbook, and second, that of sponsoring a junior class play. Both projects were deemed desirable and have met the official approval of the class.

Class members are prominent in activities, politics, organizations—the usual shibboleths of collegiana. They are congenial, standardized, quasi-sophisticated—but aren't we all?

Freshmen

Class of 1933

McAfee Billstone Wohler Baer

FIRST in a series of vivid impressions of college life for a group of some four hundred entrants was the annual Freshman Week, held early in September. Freshman convocation, progressive parties, physical examinations, and the whole gamut of introductory requirements, completely filled the average freshman's first week at Wittenberg.

Later in the year the class was organized and officers were elected. It is a matter of conjecture as to just why officers are needed in the first year body; the election of officers is the only function of the group as an organized class.

Well, with Freshman Week and election of officers out of the way, the class settled down to the usual routine. The irksome and unbecoming red hats were discarded at the end of the first semester. The usual quota of yearlings returned unhonored and unsung to the places from whence they came. Moreover, the usual percentage entered vigorously into sundry activities, training camps for the future B. M. O. C.

The Frosh basketball team was worthy of mention. The class should feel proud of the manner in which their hoopsters completed a difficult schedule with a splendid record.

Seminary

Hamma Divinity School

Joseph Sittler

THE Hamma Divinity School is a Graduate School of Theology, and is controlled by the same board of directors as the liberal arts college. A resident faculty of six men aims to prepare the students for the work of the ministry in the Church. Students are required to hold the bachelor's degree before they are admitted for work toward the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. At the present time the enrollment is fifty students.

The connection of the Seminary with the undergraduate department of Wittenberg College has certain obvious advantages. The special lecturers of both faculties may be heard by the entire student body. A central library for the use of the college and seminary students permits the members of both student groups to avail themselves of the contributions of the traditional fields of knowledge.

The officers of the Seminary Student Association are:

President . . . . . JOSEPH SITTLER, Jr.
Vice-President . . . . . JOHN E. HOFER
Secretary . . . . . JOSEPH M. O'MORROW

The Wittenberger

John G. Schneider
Editor-in-Chief

Merrit C. McElroy
Business Manager

THE Wittenberger has experienced a colorful career through the several years of its journalistic existence. The exact date of its establishment as an official publication cannot be definitely ascertained, certainly it was more than a decade ago. Probably the book is the final stage of transition from the old monthly magazine, "The Wittenberger," whose copies were bound and sold in semi-book form at the end of each year.

The present Wittenberger is the official college annual, published yearly by the Junior Class of the college. In form, the yearbook has shown definite improvements each year. The 1928 Wittenberger inaugurated the era of "color process" printing. Three-color art work was the contribution of the following year. This year the three-color scheme has been retained and a scenic section in duotone added.

The staff is indebted to Mr. K. G. Lind, Dr. J. P. Schneider, and Professor E. A. Jensen for advice and assistance throughout the year.

The Torch

Howard Draving
Editor-in-Chief

Gene Fast
Business Manager

K. G. LIND, present publicity director of the college, was the leading spirit in founding a weekly campus publication, the "Torch," in 1914. During the first year of its history the Torch absorbed the "Wittenberger," a bi-weekly founded in 1873. The staff is chosen from the student body at large, with the help of recommendations made by the retiring staff.

Howard Draving, editor-in-chief, and Gene Fast, business manager, have piloted the Torch through one of its most successful eras during the past year. During their administration the publication has changed in form from a six-column to a seven-column, four-page newspaper.

Dr. E. O. Weaver again acted as faculty adviser of the Torch, while K. G. Lind rendered valuable service in an unofficial advisory capacity.

The Torch is a member of the Ohio College Newspaper Association, and annually enters the contest sponsored by the Cleveland Plain Dealer for members of that organization.

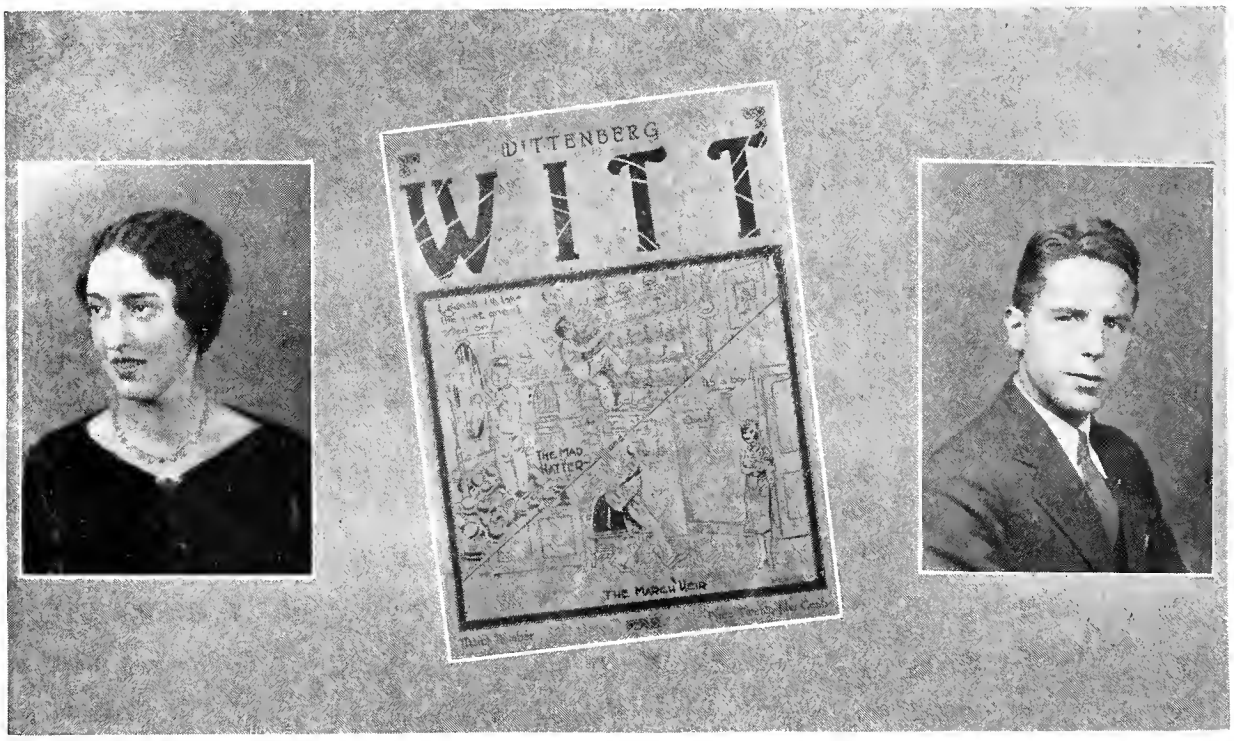
The Witt



Mary Louene Nissly
Editor

Norman Aslakson
Business Manager

THE first Wittenberg Witt appeared on the campus in 1922. It was a self-avowed "chronicle of wit, humor, and jocularity." Since 1922 the Witt has had a continuous—if at times, precarious—existence. Faculty supervision has nearly killed the youthful publication several times through oppressively rigorous censorship.

The Witt undertook the eighth year of its existance, for the first time unhampered by insanity in censorship. The first issue of the year was called the "Freshman Number", and was well received by the student body. The following seven issues proved that the publication is about to come into its own as a first-class college comic magazine.

In each of its seven numbers the Witt was replete with scintillating collegiate humor. Features, stories, and burlesques completed the subject matter of the publication.

The business staff of the Witt was faced with the same problem that perplexed the Wittenberger board—that of selling its product in a market that is hardly enthusiastic over any financial expenditure.

Both the Witt and its sister publication, The Wittenberger, would profit immeasurably if they could secure offices. Cramped working conditions, poor organization, and superfluous attention to detail are evils of the present system.

Freshman Handbook

JUST before school opens each fall, each prospective freshman is presented with a Wittenberg Handbook which is published under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. In the spring these two organizations appoint co-editors, who, with the help of a number of editorial assistants and a member of the faculty, edit the book.

This handbook contains letters of welcome from Dr. Rees Edgar Tulloss, Dr. Pershing, and Miss Ruth Immel; some information on Springfield and its churches, as well as a small map of the city. Pertinent information concerning the various activities and organizations on the campus is also included. A calendar of the school year, the best known Wittenberg songs, and some sound advice for freshmen complete the book.

It contains information which will make a freshman appreciate college more fully, and also help him to feel at home soon after his arrival.

Associations

Boost Wittenberg Association

Earl Morris

ACTING in the capacity of men's governing body, the Boost Wittenberg Association has taken upon itself the functions of promoting better school spirit, managing and supporting meritorious activities and ceremonies, and encouraging desirable students to enroll at Wittenberg. Membership consists of representatives of each men's social group and each major activity on the campus.

Some of the features of Boost "W" service are: supervision of class elections; promotion of pep meetings; and the presentation of a group scholarship cup.

During the past year Boost W has inaugurated the all-college dance idea with marked success. Five dances were held, each of which was favorably received.

The group sponsored the annual Honor Day Banquet at the Gymnasium on April 25.

Wittenberg Women's League

IN 1925, three students, aided by Dean Ruth Immell, founded the Wittenberg Women's League to encourage and further co-ed activities on the campus. The Y. W. C. A. aided in establishing the League as a recognized organization.

Membership consists of twelve representatives; four seniors, four juniors, two sophomores, and two freshmen. Members are chosen by vote of the entire co-ed student body.

During Freshman Week W. W. L. plans teas, parties, and other social events to help freshman women in orienting themselves to college life. The League also sponsors teas throughout the year in the interests of good will and harmony among all college women. All-college dances, Honor Day banquets, and similar projects receive the full cooperation of the Women's League.

TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY MEN constitute the membership of the Wittenberg Young Men's Christian Association in 1930. Forty-five years ago a few men founded the group which is now older than any other group of similar character on the campus.

The purpose motivating Y. M. C. A. activity is fourfold; to lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ, to lead them into membership and activity in the Christian church, to encourage self-betterment and the development of Christian character, and to extend the kingdom of God throughout the world.

Through the influence of the Y. M. C. A. "Freshman Week" was placed in the school calendar as a regular part of the year's activities. In conjunction with the Y. W. C. A. it sponsors the publication of the Student Handbook.

Chapel services are frequently conducted by the "Y," and prominent speakers are brought to address the students. One of the important functions of the Association is the staging of the "Y Stag" in the fall of each year.

Y. W. C. A.

FOUNDED in 1890, the Young Women's Christian Association has ministered to the spiritual life of Wittenberg women through the forty continuous years of its existence. The formal purpose of the Y. W. is "To unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God; to increase the determination to make this life possible for all people, and in this task to seek to know Jesus and to follow Him."

Recognition service for new members was held December 1st. December 8th the Y. W. C. A. conducted Christmas vespers in the college chapel. On Thanksgiving, and again at Christmas, baskets of food were presented to the poor. Included in the group's charitable activities was a Christmas Party to which children of the Oesterlin Home were invited as honored guests.

Throughout the year the Young Women's Christian Association has entered many phases of college life. Religious discussions, chapel programs, the Student Handbook, and the Lutheran Youth Conference are a few of the many projects sponsored by the Y. W. C. A.

Student Chest

Albert H. Keck

IN 1924 campus "service" organizations abandoned the unorganized, inefficient schemes by which they had financed their projects until then. To succeed "tag days," "subscriptions," and other scattered devices, the Student Chest came into existence.

The Student Chest has as its objective the combining of various campus financial campaigns into one drive, and the equitable distribution of the funds among deserving organizations. A Student Chest Board, whose duty it is to meet the above requirements, is elected annually by all-college vote.

The Chest budget for the present year included appropriations for Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Boost Wittenberg Association, Wittenberg Women's League, Band, Orchestra, Campaign Fund, Contingency Fund, and Wittenberg in China. $3,525.00 was the amount requested by the Board. Complete receipts totaled only $2,900.00.

In spite of this deficit the members of the Board can not be said to have failed. One appropriation, that of $1,000 for Wittenberg in China, met with spirited and righteous indignation. The Student Chest Board did a splendid work in so nearly overcoming this obstacle.

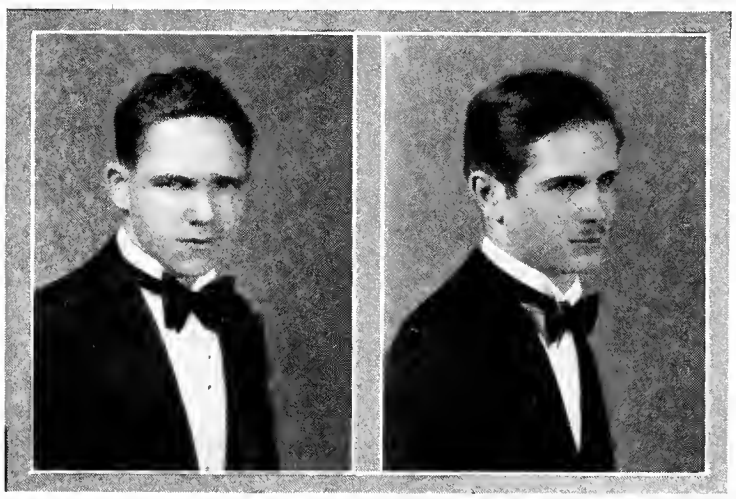
Forensics

Varsity Debate



Morris Gayman

DEBATING the question "Resolved, that the present extent of modern advertising is to be deplored," the varsity debaters again won recognition for Wittenberg in the field of forensics, and tied for first place in the Ohio Debate Conference. With six good debaters of the previous season returning to school, the squad began preparations early in September to retain the trophy which had been held for three consecutive years. Earl Morris was team captain of the negative, and Vaughn Gayman was captain of the affirmative team. Only one decision debate was lost during the entire season, that being the first debate of the year which took place at Bluffton.

Representing Wittenberg in this debate were Stanley Raymer, Robert Mills, and Vaughn Gayman. The same evening the negative team, consisting of August Schneider, Albert Keck, and Earl Morris, won from a trio representing Heidelberg College. There was only one other meeting which counted in the conference standings. This was a double victory scored over Muskingum away from home, and Otterbein in the college chapel. At Muskingum the men representing Wittenberg were Charles Schwart, Albert Keck, and Earl Morris. At home the same team, Stanley Raymer, Robert Mills and Vaughn Gayman, which had lost the first debate to Bluffton, earned the judges' decision against Otterbein. At the close of the season, Wittenberg was tied for first place in the Ohio Conference and at a meeting of representatives from the schools who were tied for first it was decided that no more debates would be held to break the tie.

No debates were held previous to the conference debates, but a busy post-season schedule was arranged by Coach Brees, who has so successfully coached consistent winners. Coach Brees changed the line-ups in these debates and introduced some novelties to home audiences. William Avery and Robert Churchman debated each other in one of the spring debates, each having as their colleague a speaker from Asbury Women's College, Kentucky. A two-man team consisting of Jack Beard and Earl Morris met debaters from Loyola University in a no-decision debate. In the closing debates of the year, Wilson Hogue, Harold Lentz, Vaughn Gayman, and Victor Keller met a Wilmington negative team at Osborn Ohio, and Max Bucklew, Donald Elder, and Earl Morris upheld the standards of Wittenberg at Wilmington College. Both were non-decision debates.

As a fitting reward for their activity in forensics, Coach Brees picked the two team captains, Earl Morris and Vaughn Gayman, to make an extended debate tour to Havana, Cuba. Coach Brees accompanied the men on this tour in which a number of southern colleges and universities, including Birmingham Southern University, Duke, and Berea College were met. This trip was taken early in March and consumed three weeks.

Six seniors spoke for Wittenberg for the last time the past year. They are August Schneider, Earl Morris, Robert Mills, Vaughn Gayman, Stanley Raymer, and Robert Churchman. Other members of the varsity debate squad the past year were: Affirmative—Wilson Hogue, Edward Bauer, Victor Keller, Harold Lentz. Negative:—Charles Schwart, Harold Thomas, Maxwell Bucklew, Donald Elder, Albert Keck, William Avery, and John Beard.

Women's Varsity Debate

Lehmann Gardner Ruh

RESPECTIVE merits of chain stores and independent dealers were efficiently expounded by the women's debate squad this year. The question on which they started work in the summer of 1929 was "Resolved: That chain stores are detrimental to public welfare." Martha Gardner and Elsie Ruh captained the affirmative squad which consisted of Miriam Conger, Alberta Benze, Katharine Bowman, Marian Gebby, Rebecca Wirick, and Mary Montgomery. Margaret Lehmann was captain of the negative team which included Roxanna Hutchings, Frances Jack, Eleanor Poole, Phyllis Williams, Dorothy Straw, and Marjorie Timmons.

With more than six months of hard, constructive work behind them, the teams opened an extensive debating schedule on March 4, when Catherine Bowman, Alberta Benze and Elsie Ruh met a negative team from Miami on the Wittenberg platform, and Phyllis Williams, Marjorie Timmons and Margaret Lehmann of the negative journeyed to Miami to complete the dual non-decision match. On March 5, Rebecca Wirick, Marian Gebby and Elsie Ruh of the affirmative met Depauw at Greencastle, Indiana in a non-decision contest. The next evening Rebecca Wirick, Marian Gebby and Martha Gardner won an audience decision from Purdue's negative team at Lafayette, Indiana. At the same time, Catherine Bowman, Alberta Benze and Elsie Ruh engaged in a non-decision combat with a negative team from Wheaton College, on our home platform. On March 7, Rebecca Wirick, Marian Gebby and Martha Gardner lost a single judge contest to a Wheaton negative team at Wheaton, Illinois.

Women's Varsity Debate

The negative team traveled into Michigan. Roxanna Hutchings, Dorothy Straw and Margaret Lehman debated Albion College at Albion in a non-decision conflict on March 12. On the same evening, Rebecca Wirick, Alberta Benze, and Martha Gardner engaged in a similar debate with a negative team from Albion on our home platform. On March 13, Frances Jack, Eleanor Poole and Margaret Lehman lost a single judge decision to Kalamazoo College there.

"Honor to whom honor is due" is the keynote of the Honor Day Banquet, and so it was only right that those debaters who deserved it should be honored there. This year Miriam Conger received a cup for four years of debating activity, and Marian Gebby, Elsie Ruh, Katherine Bowman, Margaret Lehman and Alberta Benze received gavels in recognition of their having participated in two inter-collegiate varsity debates. Rebecca Wirick and Martha Gardner earned their gavels last year.

With the question for next year, state medicine, chosen, bibliographies at hand, and a most promising group of first-year women promoted, the season of 1930-31 promises to be the most extensive and successful in the history of women's forensic activities at Wittenberg.

First Year Men's Debate

A NUMBER of men without previous experience in collegiate debate work displayed their argumentative technique before Coach Joseph Sittler and Professor Paul R. Brees, in the fall of 1929. From this group of candidates the following were chosen to form the First Year Men's Debate Squad: Stuart Anderson, Alfred Belles, Curtiss Bradstreet, George Hart, Paul Hartley, Roger Imhoff, Howard Kany, Wade Koons, Olen Peters, Paul Renz, Anson Skillings, Howard Wessling, Zaner Zerkle, and Wesley Ziegler.

The group was divided into negative and affirmative squads, each squad organizing material on the question: "Resolved: That political lobbying in Washington should be abolished."

Olen Peters and Wade Koons captained the teams in the first match, that with Miami University on March 25. Before the end of the season, however, every man on the squad had seen service in at least one debate. The squad enjoyed a successful season and brought to light several promising candidates for varsity debate positions next year.

First Year Women's Debate

CONSISTING of both upperclassmen and underclassmen, the first-year debate squad is a preparatory step to varsity debate. Candidates who show merit are, at the end of the season, promoted to the varsity squad at a service conducted by Tau Kappa Alpha.

November, 1929, a competitive try-out was held to choose the squad for 1929-30. Professor Kelley selected as his working squad, Lucille Adams, Dorcas Burnap, Martha Buschmeier, Ann Louise Harbison, Jennie Hunt, Isabelle Johnson, Mary McClellan, Helen Meyer, Margaret Norton, Willene Pancost, Virginia Rhodes, Mae Smith, Harriette Treash, and Esther Vance.

The question chosen was: "Resolved: That the nations should adopt a policy of total disarmament except for an adequate police force." Jennie Hunt captained the affirmative squad while Isabelle Johnson piloted the negative debaters.

March 21, an affirmative squad composed of Lucille Adams, Mae Smith, and Jennie Hunt, journeyed to West Virginia Wesleyan to make their debut on the collegiate forensic platform. At the same time a negative team composed of Esther Vance, Martha Buschmeier, and Isabelle Johnson met an affirmative team from West Virginia Wesleyan on the Wittenberg platform. Both contests resulted in Wittenberg victories.

An exhibition debate was held at Xenia High School, April 6, with Virginia Rhodes, Mary McClellan, and Dorcas Burnap of the affirmative opposing Martha Buschmeier, Willene Pancost, and Isabelle Johnson of the negative.

Oratory

Mills Wirick Schwart

ENTERING four oratorical contests the past season, Wittenberg orators won two firsts, a second, and a third place to strengthen the excellent reputation which the college holds in the field of public speaking. To Professors Brees and Kelley of the Public Speaking Department must go much of the praise for these splendid attainments.

Speaking in the Old Line Oratorical Contest at Ohio Wesleyan, February 15, Earl Morris won second place in the state out of a field of seven entrants. Rebecca Wirick was Wittenberg's only woman entry in oratory the past year but she ably demonstrated her ability by winning first place in the State Women's Oratorical Association. The contest in which Miss Wirick proved herself the best woman orator in the state was held at Bluffton College, March 21. Rebecca Wirick and Earl Morris were coached by Professor P. R. Brees. Charles Schwart and Robert Mills were the other two Wittenberg representatives in oratory, both being coached by Prof. G. Vernon Kelley. Out of a field of seven, Charles Schwart won third place in the southern division of the State Peace Oratorical Association contest, held at Capitol University, April 25. In the final contest of the year, also held at Capitol University, Robert Mills was chosen as one of two speakers to represent Ohio in the national semi-finals on the Constitution.

Earl Morris, Rebecca Wirick, and Robert Mills are seniors and will be lost to Wittenberg next year. Charles Schwart is a sophomore and is expected to gain honors for his school during the next two years.

Dramatics

The Taming of the Shrew

EACH year, it seems, the cognoscenti are offered one worthwhile play in a dramatic season replete with box office attractions and "amateur theatricals." This one bright spot is the Theta Alpha Phi presentation of the annual campus play. Since 1923 the dramatic fraternity has staged the following attractions, each a work of recognized literary and dramatic value: "Ingomar", "The Merchant of Venice," "Hamlet," "Robin Hood," "Francesca da Rimini," and "The Taming of the Shrew."

Tuesday, June 4, 1929, "The Taming of the Shrew" was presented before a splendid audience in the natural amphitheatre near Science Hall. A prologue in the form of an induction scene was the only change made in the accepted version of the play.

Louise Holl, as Katherina, contributed an intelligent interpretation of a difficult role. Miss Holl displayed the same captivating personality and finished technique that has characterized her work throughout her college dramatic career.

Petruchio, a suitor to Katherina, was characterized by Robert Churchman with an ease and finesse that is remarkable in a college actor. Churchman deserves unlimited praise as the best undergraduate actor it has been our pleasure to watch in recent years. Sub-leads were ably handled by Miss Short and Mr. Pettit. In fact, the entire supporting cast deserves commendation.

The play was presented under the direction of Professor Paul R. Brees. Professor E. A. Jensen acted as business manager for the production.

The Butter and Egg Man

A Comedy in Three Acts

GEORGE KAUFFMAN'S "The Butter and Egg Man" was presented by the senior Class at the Fairbanks Theatre, November 21. The play was exceptionally well done considering the fiasco perpetrated by the Class of 1930 in its junior production.

As for the script, if there is one situation or one line that we had not heard before—we must have slept through it in the current revival.

Robert Churchman, as the naive but virtuous victim from Chillicothe, verified our estimate of his ability as set forth in another article in this volume. The part was difficult—but Churchman was equal to it.

Robert Mills, as the scheming city slicker, was good, although we could have heard him even without his shouting. His partner in crime was done by Earl Morris—a better debater than an actor.

Hilda Wendt played well a part in which she was not well cast. Dorothy Swigert and George Dueser displayed considerable talent in minor roles. The part to which Elizabeth Cummings aspired could not have been done well by any actress. The author who could create such a preposterous character must have been insane.

Lesser roles were well handled. An excellence was found in these minor parts that was refreshing. Critics and audience alike were pleased with the players. By common consent we can condemn the script as atrocious.

Applesauce

A Comedy in Three Acts

PRESENTING the baptismal class play for the new gymnasium, the Junior Class pleased a large—if not aesthetically critical—audience with its presentation of the three-act comedy "Applesauce", February 18, 1930. The piece at least convinced us that the gymnasium has satisfactory theatrical qualities. The gym builders were wise in securing good acoustics and a large stage in the structure.

The play developed a time-honored plot with equally antiquated lines. The hero, strong, handsome, lazy, thwarts the villain, ambitious, successful, confident; in winning the hand of the heroine—denied the man of her choice by her parents, quarrelsome, stubborn, and allegedly humorous. An uncle was included on a flimsy pretext—and a gossipy neighbor for no reason at all.

Gene Fast as Bill McAllister (cf. hero, above) played his part well. Stage presence, looks, a pleasing voice, combined to make the characterization commendable.

Opposed to Fast, in the role of the villainous "Rollo," Al Keck was letter perfect. There was something about Keck's interpretation that made one think that perhaps the lad is a go-getter, a success. Anyway, the boy was "there."

Dorothy Straw, acting under the handicap of a recent illness, brought out all of the possibilities in a very weak part. Miss Straw, one feels, has potential, but as yet undeveloped, capabilities in the art of dramatic expression.

Margaret Lehmann and Fritz Kreuger, as Ma and Pa respectively, did a passable job. Krueger's beautiful singing voice is not especially well adapted for speaking parts.

The remainder of the cast, Marian Gebby and Albert Berngen, were O. K. by us. All of which only goes to show that when better plays are brought to Wittenberg—Wittenbergers can play them!

Music

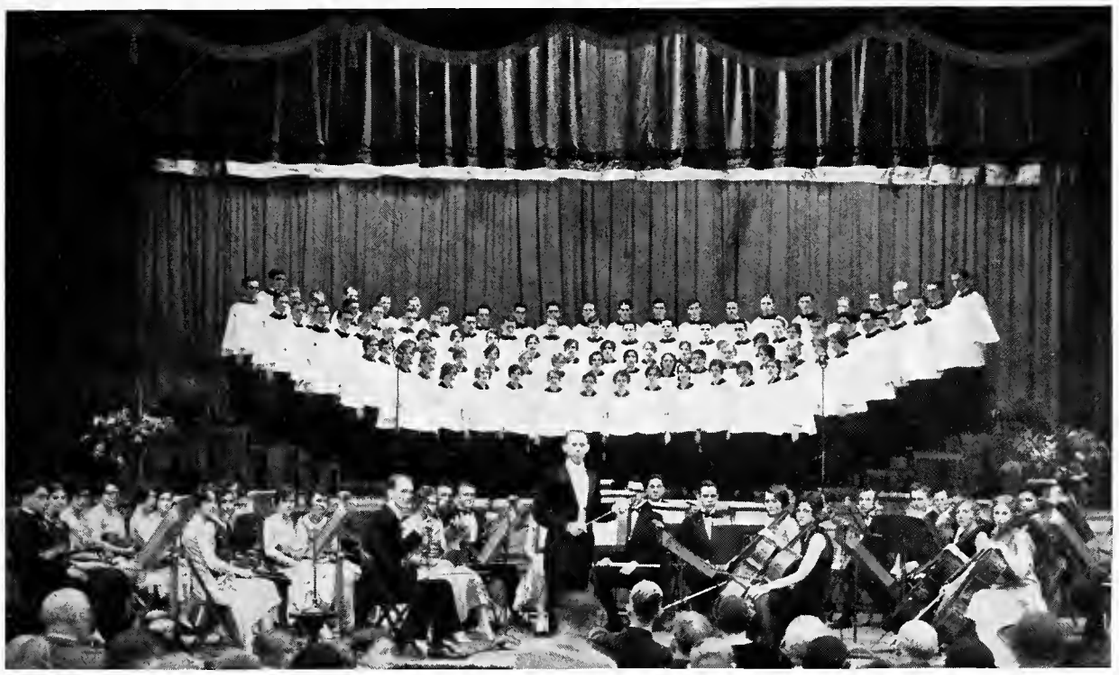
Wittenberg Chorus

MARKING the beginning of a radically different system of organized group singing at Wittenberg, the scholastic year 1929-30 saw the old plan of men's and women's glee clubs discarded in favor of choral singing. The Wittenberg Chorus in its first year surpassed all the achievements of its predecessors in the field.

No trips were made by the Chorus, authorities deeming it advisable to spend at least one year in training. The first public appearance of the Chorus, at the formal opening of the Field House, was greeted with wild applause and predictions of future greatness. Local musical critics foresee a national—even international—reputation for Wittenberg's a capella choristers.

The formation of the Chorus is a significant step, ono which should aid the college materially in the form of desirable publicity. Even more beneficial to Wittenberg will be the chorus' contribution to the cultural background of the institution.

Wittenberg Chorus



Wittenberg Chorus at Gymnasium Opening

NOTEWORTHY among innovations in the training system adopted by the Chorus was a compulsory course in physical education. The course, devoted largely to swimming, was beneficial in developing lung and throat power in the singers.

The Chorus aided campus and civic organizations in sponsoring worth-while musical programs. The Midland Choir, the Westminster Choir, and outstanding soloists were presented to Springfield and Wittenberg audiences in this manner.

A large number of members of the 1929-30 Chorus will return to form the nucleus for next year's group. Directing the infant musical organization was John Thomas Williams, professor in the School of Music. Homer C. Lindsay, undergraduate leader in the movement which led to the formation of the Chorus, acted as manager of the group.

Band

KEEPING in step with a progressive trend that is general throughout the college, the Wittenberg Band made more public appearances than ever before, and was better prepared to make public appearances than ever before.

The first audition of the year was at the Convocation held in the stadium. Following this great inauguration of the year's work the band played for eight of the ten football games.

As usual the band was in action at all of the pep meets, and entertained the audiences at most of the basketball games.

Professor Anton Bjorklund, director of the Band, successfully introduced a more difficult type of music than college bands usually attempt. Lowell Baxter, author of the new "fight song" acted as assistant director.

With only a few men lost by graduation the band anticipates an even more pretentious year for 1930-'31.

Orchestra

WITH a group almost intact from last year, there was little need of reorganization in the Wittenberg Symphony Orchestra. Try-outs early in the fall augmented the already large personnel, and work was begun immediately. The orchestra continued to give a touch of musical classicism to a regular diet of jazz tunes, mammy songs, and bar-room ditties—the musical preference of the campus.

Concerts were presented at the following events: Springfield Community Chest Drive luncheon, formal opening of the new Field House, Junior Class play, Youth Conference Assembly, Honor Day Banquet, and Alma Mater Day ceremonies. All of these appearances were marked by excellent performances and appreciative receptions. Especially noteworthy was the beautiful symphonic effect secured by the orchestra working in conjunction with the Choir at the opening of the Field House.

The only trip made by the Orchestra was a jaunt to Mechanicsburg, where a good performance was well received.

Anton Bjorklund acted as conductor of the group, while Martha Demarest, first violin, was concertmeister.

Honorary Organizations

Blue Key

IN 1926 a chapter of the national honorary booster fraternity, Blue Key, was established on the Wittenberg campus. At first a virtual subsidiary of Boost "W", Blue Key has since legislated itself into a position of prominence among undergraduate organizations.

Perhaps the outstanding function of Blue Key is the sponsoring of the annual "Visitation Week-End." Each year the organization invites hundreds of high school seniors to visit Wittenberg College for a period of observation and entertainment.

Seniors who have won distinction by means of popularity or meritorious service are eligible for membership.

WITTENBERG chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary forensic fraternity, was established in 1921. Professor F. H. McNutt and John Armbruster were leaders in securing the charter. The local group is one of fifty-four chapters of the fraternity.

Eligibility for membership is based on participation in debate and oratory in inter-collegiate competition. The group sponsors contest for high school debaters and orators and is generally active in its department.

SCROLL AND QUILL, local honorary journalistic fraternity, was founded December 5, 1922. In 1924 Scroll and Quill shouldered the burden of responsibility for publication of the college yearbook, supervising election of the editorial and business staffs. The first Ohio High School Journalistic Conference was held at Wittenberg under the auspices of Scroll and Quill in 1925.

In 1928 Scroll and Quill assumed the role of host to the semi-annual convention of the Ohio Conference Newspaper Association. Later in the same year a visitation week-end for high school journalists was held on the campus.

In 1930 Scroll and Quill's petition to Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalistic fraternity was granted and a chapter was installed at Wittenberg.

Press and Journal

AMONG the more recent organizations on the campus is Press and Journal, woman's honorary journalistic fraternity, organized in 1927 through the efforts of women distinguishing themselves in campus publications. Two years work on any of the major publications of the campus: Witt, Wittenberger, Handbook or Torch, make a candidate eligible for membership.

The object of Press and Journal is to develop the individual members in the field of journalism, and to support and cooperate with campus publications. Meetings are held monthly.

Members of this honorary include Avalyn Wilson, Frances Schneider, Margaret Malone and Martha Gardner. Honorary members are Professors Leila K. McNeill and Rose C. Cadwgan.

Theta Chi Delta

ONE of the youngest in point of age, Alpha Iota Chapter of Theta Chi Delta, has assumed a position of importance among the organization's twelve branches. Membership is offered as a reward for high scholarship in the field of chemistry. The fraternity has so honored Wittenberg students since its founding in 1928.

The group was host to the national convention of Theta Chi Delta two years ago. Regular activities of the fraternity include the presentation of chemical displays, conducting of "open house" exhibits, and awards of prizes to outstanding students in this science. A visitation week for high school students interested in chemistry was conducted during the past year.

FOUNDED at Oklahoma City University in 1922, Beta Beta Beta, national honorary biological fraternity, chartered Xi chapter at Wittenberg in 1927. The fraternity sponsors a three-fold program; sound scholarship, dissemination of scientific knowledge, and biological research.

Beta Beta Beta at Wittenberg was host to the convention of the Ohio Academy of Science which met at this institution in the spring of 1929. Regular meetings are held, and programs of interest to students of biology are presented from time to time.

Theta Alpha Phi

THETA ALPHA PHI, national honorary dramatic fraternity, renders a unique service to the college in the annual presentation of a campus play. In previous years the following plays have been given: "Ingomar," "The Merchant of Venice," "Hamlet," "Robinhood," "Francesca Da Rimini," "Macbeth," and "The Taming of the Shrew." The play is produced as a part of the commencement activities, and is given in the open air theatre. These productions are given under the direction of Prof. Paul R. Brees, head of the Public Speaking Department.

"The Rouge Pot" preceded Theta Alpha Phi as a dramatic fraternity on the campus. In 1922 its petition to the national group was granted and Ohio Beta Chapter was installed at Wittenberg.

Sigma Alpha Iota

ALPHA DELTA Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national honorary musical fraternity was installed at Wittenberg June 2, 1928. It was formerly known as Delta Mu. The group is made up of women who have done successful work in the field of music, and its aim is to increase interest in music on the campus and in the community. The group has completed an unusually successful year, including participation in many musical activities.

At the province convention held April 10 and 11 at Decatur, Ill., Alpha Delta chapter won three honors. Geneva Demarest, pianist, won first place in a concert contest, entitling her to compete in a contest at the national convention at Minneapolis, Minn., in 1931.

Margaret Sawmiller was initiated into second degree membership, an honor awarded for outstanding activity in the society for two years. Esther Oelrich was elected editor for Beta province. The fraternity observed Founders' Day on December 1 with a banquet; gave a formal dance February 22; and a tea for all women interested in music, April 26. The annual musical tea for faculty women was given May 10.

Kappa Phi Kappa

KAPPA PHI KAPPA is a national honorary educational fraternity founded at Dartmouth College in 1922. There are now thirty-three chapters on the fraternity roll; the Wittenberg chapter was chartered in 1923.

It is a policy of the fraternity to offer an annual prize, in a contest open to anyone, for the best essay on some educational topic. This year the prize of $25 was awarded to Herman Walborn at the Honor Day Banquet.

There are six faculty members of this organization, including Dr. P. H. Heisey, Dr. J. O. Evjen, Dr. T. B. Birch, Dr. R. E. Tulloss, Dr. M. J. Neuberg, and Prof. P. L. Mellenbruch. Seven new members were initiated into the Wittenberg chapter during the past school year.

Euterpea

IN 1886 a few of the co-eds of Wittenberg College realized that there was an urgent need for a woman's literary society, and established Euterpea. Its founders were the following: Lulu Cumback, Esther Crawford, Sally Breckenridge, Lillian Stough, Mary Baer, and Jennie Neil. Euterpea has for its motto: "Curae Nihil Impossible Est."

Although there have been times when the Euterpean Literary Society seemed to be slowly drifting, it strives always for progress. The society was divided for several years into a junior and a senior Euterpea, which arrangement proved successful for a time. It was reorganized in 1921 into one body, and membership was placed on a scholarship basis.

The aim of Euterpea is to create a greater desire for literary work among the girls of the school, and to encourage and develop whatever talents each member may possess. Miscellaneous programs are given and at some time during the year, each member is given the opportunity to take part. Faculty members also participate.

Clubs

Biology Club

THE Biology Club was founded at Wittenberg College in 1927. The organization has four major purposes; to create a greater interest in the science of biology; to utilize various phases of biological knowledge by practical application; to reward scholarship attainment; and to sponsor research work in the field of biology.

Membership is limited to those students who have at least four semester hours credit in biology, and who have maintained a scholarship quotient of 3.00 or above.

The club members meet regularly throughout the year for discussions, lectures, and experimental work.

Schaus Fellowship

IN THE fall of 1925 a new organization was formed at Wittenberg under the name of The Schaus Fellowship; its members consisting of all students enrolled in the courses of Religious Education. The fellowship was named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Schaus, of Springfield, founders of the Department of Religious Education. To band together students in Religious Education courses; to discuss problems of Religious Educational and Christian service to the community, is the statement of purpose. This year, as is the annual custom, a banquet was held at the Fourth Lutheran Church. Dr. D. Burt Smith, of Philadelphia, delivered the address to about 125 people who were present.

Officers of Schaus Fellowship are the following:

OFFICERS

President	FRANKLIN K. ZIMMERMAN
Vice-President	KATHERINE THRASHER
Secretary	MARY MOREHEAD
Treasurer	ALFRED DITTMER
Faculty Member	Dr. PAUL H. HEISEY

Home Economics Club

THE Home Economics Club was organized in 1925, largely through the efforts of Miss Louise Lahr, then head of the department.

During the past year a new system has been adopted whereby the group is divided into two sections, active members and associate members. To be eligible for active membership a student must be majoring or minoring in Home Economics courses. Associate membership is open to students who have chosen Home Economics as a minor. Both active and associate members may vote, but only active members may hold office.

The group holds regular meetings throughout the year and sponsors laboratory research work in the field of Home Economics.

Toledo Club

THE Toledo Club, or the "Wittenberg-Toledo Student Association," was founded in 1926. Its expressed purpose is "to uphold the ideals of Wittenberg and . . . to further friendship among Toledo students."

With the advent of the era of super-salesmanship among college field secretaries, the club has widened its scope to include amateur salesmanship among prospective Wittenbergers in Toledo. Each year Toledo Club members sponsor a banquet with high school students as the honored guests.

A monthly dinner meeting helps to keep alive the spirit of friendship among Toledo students.

Greater Cleveland Club

STUDENTS from Cleveland and vicinity have banded themselves together under the name of the Greater Cleveland Club. This organization is still in its infancy, having received faculty recognition on April 4, 1929.

There are three purposes of the club: to promote interest in Wittenberg at Cleveland; to interest Cleveland students in attending Wittenberg; and to promote cooperation between Clevelanders at Wittenberg and the Cleveland Alumni Association.

Cosmopolitan Club

THE Cosmopolitan Club was organized in October, 1928, by the foreign students on the campus. The Club has a two-fold purpose: (1) to aid students from abroad by bringing them into closer contact with each other for the purpose of discussing problems of mutual interest, and (2) to promote a better understanding of foreign nations on the campus.

Programs, consisting of national songs, dances, and pageants drawing large, crowds and open to all students of the college, characterize the activity of the Club. International and inter-racial conferences with Antioch College and Ohio State University also form part of the Club's activities. Though representing all different nations of Europe, Asia, and South America, the Cosmopolitan Club forms at the present time a compact and friendly group doing a great deal toward helping newcomers from abroad to adjust themselves to American life.

Inter-Fraternity Council

F. L. Ritter

BROADENING the scope of its activities, taking upon itself new responsibility and new authority, increasing its strength through internal organization, the Inter-fraternity Council enjoyed a most successful year in 1929-30.

The Council sponsored an inter-fraternity smoker early in the fall for all Greek letter men. Inter-group basketball and bridge tournaments were sponsored by the organization in the winter months.

Phi Mu Delta fraternity, having served the customary probation period, was admitted to membership. Pi Kappa Alpha, serving a term of suspension from the Council, was reinstated to good standing.

Perhaps the most important work of the council in the past year was the forming of a constitution. The articles, forming a masterly document, were ratified by the council members and were declared effective May 1.

The Inter-fraternity spring dance was held May 10, with Jean Goldkette's Orchestra furnishing the music.

Dr. A. T. Volwiler acted as faculty adviser, being an inexhaustible source of technical knowledge and sound advice to the council members.

New house under construction

IN FEBRUARY 19, 1852, Phi Kappa Psi fraternity was founded at Jefferson College, Cannonsburg, Pennsylvania, by Charles P. T. Moore and William H. Letterman. Jefferson College later became a part of Washington and Jefferson College, and Phi Kappa Psi's pioneer chapter moved to Washington, Pennsylvania. At the present time there are 50 active chapters.

The local chapter, Ohio Beta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi, was organized under the leadership of Dr. John O. Davy, and received its charter on May 14, 1866. The first fraternity on the campus, Phi Kappa Psi, has enjoyed sixty-four years of continuous existence.

One of the most significant events in the history of the chapter occurred this year when construction of a magnificent new fraternity home was begun.

Beta Theta Pi

FIRST of the famous "Miami Triad" of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, Beta Theta Pi was founded on August 8, 1839. At the time, the land west of the Mississippi was largely undeveloped; the plain between the Mississippi and the Alleghenies was sparsely settled; and Beta Theta Pi has the distinction of being the first fraternity to be founded west of the Allegheny Mountains. At the present time the national organization numbers eighty-seven chapters.

Alpha Gamma chapter of Beta Theta Pi was founded at Wittenberg by two members of the chapter at Ohio Wesleyan, Edward Thomson and Homer S. Mouser. Installation ceremonies took place January 18, 1867, less than a year after the appearance of the first fraternity on the campus.

Alpha Tau Omega

MOTIVATED by a desire to create better understanding between the North and the South, Otis Allen Glazebrook, Alfred Marshall, and Erskine Mayo Ross founded Alpha Tau Omega in 1865. The first fraternity to be organized after the Civil War was established at Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Virginia. The first Northern chapter was founded in 1881, largely through the aid of Dr. Edgar Fahs Smith, Phi Kappa Psi, former Wittenberger faculty member and later provost of the University of Pennsylvania.

Ohio Alpha Psi of Alpha Tau Omega was chartered at Wittenberg College in 1883, by N. Wiley Thomas, and E. J. Shives. Climaxing the history of the chapter in recent years was the erection of a beautiful new chapter house on Woodlawn Avenue.

Phi Gamma Delta

PHI GAMMA DELTA fraternity was founded at Jefferson College, Cannonsburg, Pennsylvania, on May 1, 1848. Six students, headed by John Templeton McCarty, were the organizers and charter members of the fraternity. When, in 1865, Washington and Jefferson colleges were combined, Alpha chapter of Phi Gamma Delta was moved to Washington, Pennsylvania.

Before 1860 the fraternity numbered twelve chapters, and after 1865 two new chapters were installed annually. The national fraternity has been a pioneer in advocating a system of central organization. There are now seventy chapters in colleges and universities throughout the country and in Canada.

Sigma society of Wittenberg College was granted a charter in 1884, and became Sigma chapter of Phi Gamma Delta. It was the fourth fraternity to be founded on the campus.

Pi Kappa Alpha

SHORTLY after the close of the Civil War, in 1868, Frederick S. Taylor founded the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity at the University of Virginia. The fraternity restricted its membership to southern colleges and universities until 1909 when it adopted a policy of national expansion. At present there are seventy-nine chapters of Pi Kappa Alpha.

The local fraternity, Pi Alpha Epsilon, founded in 1922, was chartered Gamma Zeta chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha, March 12, 1926. One of the most important events of the past year was the reinstatement of Pi Kappa Alpha to membership in the Interfraternity Council.

Kappa Phi

APRIL 2, 1922 marked the founding of the Kappa Phi Fraternity at Wittenberg, with ten charter members and a chapter house at 904 Woodlawn Avenue. The founders of the fraternity were: Harold Conover, Francis Winkey, Chester Kessler, Fletcher Carey, Donnel Keifer, Purdis Kenyon, William Caskey, Reginald Barr, Lester Young, and Edward Lopeman.

Kappa Phi has enjoyed a substantial progress during its eight year's existence as a unit in Wittenberg's social life. Its members enter numerous fields of endeavor, always keeping in mind the ideals of the founders: "a spirit of democracy toward its Alma Mater, an unswerving faith in one Supreme Being, and the promotion of scholastic activity among its members."

The Kappa Phi fraternity enjoys the distinction of being the only men's group on the campus to maintain a housemother on the premises.

Chi Sigma Nu

CHI SIGMA NU fraternity was granted a charter by faculty action on October 19, 1926. The ideals set forth by its founders, H. R. Flarida and C. Frederick Gimbel, were: "The promotion of scholarship, fellowship, and a true Wittenberg spirit."

The organization had its first chapter house at 30 West College Avenue. In 1929 the members moved to 129 East McCreight Avenue, remaining there until this year, when they entered their present home on Fountain Avenue.

Chi Sigma Nu has made great forward strides in the past year and should be given credit, especially for consummating the project which brought it a new home.

Phi Mu Delta

UPON the dissolution of the Dorm League in January, 1929, some thirty students banded themselves together to form a local fraternity, Pi Theta Phi. The group officially became a fraternity when faculty recognition was granted February 14, 1928.

Theta Phi became Mu Delta chapter of Phi Mu Delta March 1, 1930, when it was granted a charter by the national body. With the installation of the Wittenberg petitioners, the chapter roll of Phi Mu Delta reached a total of sixteen.

Group members, ranking well in activities and scholarship, occupy a beautiful fraternity home on the corner of Ferncliff Place and North Fountain Avenue.

Alpha Theta Alpha

IN THE history of Wittenberg social groups there is, perhaps, no more unique episode than the action by which a national fraternity "went local" in 1928.

The group was established as Beth chapter of the Sadhe Aleph fraternity in May, 1923. In 1928, the chapter voluntarily relinquished its charter, the members forming the local fraternity, Alpha Theta Alpha.

During the past year Alpha Theta Alpha has completed Interfraternity Council probation requirements, and has been admitted to membership in that body. This action climaxed two years of steady progress made by the group since its inception.

Wittenberg Commons Club

IN JANUARY, 1929, Elmer Gregg, Ewald Berger, Barclay Brandmiller, Ford Coolman, Loraine Failing and George Grant founded the Commons Club to fill the need for such an organization following the dissolution of the Dorm League. The policy of the group has been of a very democratic nature, and in this spirit, the organization has steadily progressed.

The Club moved from Myers Hall into a house of their own on January 15, 1930. Their new home is located at 504 N. Wittenberg Avenue.

Sororities

Pan-Hellenic Council

Edna Kurzen

ORGANIZED in 1921, the Pan-Hellenic Council has existed for the purpose of "fostering a spirit of comradeship among all college women, establishing and maintaining high social standards, and encouraging appreciation of sportsmanlike conduct." The group has done much to eliminate the bitter competition that was once the invariable concomitant of inter-sorority relations.

Exchange dinners were sponsored at regular intervals throughout the year. The annual Pan-Hellenic tea dance was one of the most brilliant social events of the winter season.

The Council again experimented with the plan of deferred rushing, perennially a moot question in sorority circles. The system has certain obvious advantages and other equally obvious disadvantages. Cut-throat rushing was successfully eliminated, but sorority women paid the customary price—six weeks of neglected duties while frenzied rushing was the order of the day.

Miss Ruth Immell and Miss Rose Cadwgan are faculty advisers to the organization.

Gamma Phi Beta

FRANCES E. HAVEN, Mary Bingham, E. Adeline Curtis, and Helen M. Dodge founded Gamma Phi Beta, November 11, 1874, at Syracuse University. There are now 38 active chapters in the United States and Canada.

On June 9, 1929, Tau Delta Theta, first Greek letter sorority on the Wittenberg campus, became Alpha Nu of Gamma Phi Beta. Tau Delta Theta was founded April 17, 1902, and its membership was restricted to local girls until 1917. The first chapter house was on Park Place, but in 1921 the group moved to 628 Woodlawn Avenue, its present location.

Closely related to the active chapter are the alumni association, established in 1914, and the Mother's Club, organized in 1928.

Alpha Xi Delta

SEVEN Wittenberg women founded the second sorority on the campus, Sigma Pi, in 1903. This local group became Zeta chapter of Alpha Xi Delta in 1904.

Alpha Xi Delta Sorority was founded at Lombard College, Galesburg, Illinois, April 17, 1893. The national society has followed a policy of slow but continuous expansion until today it comprises fifty chapters throughout the United States.

The first chapter house of the first national sorority at Wittenberg was located on the corner of Woodlawn Avenue and College Avenue. The group later established a home at 529 North Wittenberg Avenue, which site has been retained until the present day.

Alpha Delta Pi

ALPHA DELTA PI was founded at Wesleyan Female College, Macon Georgia, on May 5, 1851, and was called the Adelphian Society. It was not until 1904 that it became known as the Alpha chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. In 1913 it changed its name to Alpha Delta Pi to avoid confusion with the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. Gamma Beta Gamma was founded on this campus as a local on March 4, 1913, and became Chi chapter of Alpha Delta Pi on November 20, 1913.

CHI OMEGA was organized at the University of Arkansas, April 5, 1895, by Ina May Bales, Jabelle Holcolm, Alice Carey Simonds, and Jeanne Marie Vincenheller. The chapter roll at present numbers 87, with two inactive chapters. Each active chapter awards annually a prize, usually $25, to the woman student in its college who excels in the work of the department of economics, sociology, political science or psychology.

Tau Gamma chapter of Chi Omega was installed on this campus in 1925, having been organized as Kappa Phi Sigma, a local sorority, in 1922.

Kappa Delta

KAPPA DELTA sorority was founded October 23, 1897, at Virginia State Normal School, Farmville, Va., by Mary Sparks, Sara Turner, Lenora D. Ashmore and Julia Tyler, daughter of President Tyler. There are sixty-four active chapters. Since 1921 Kappa Delta has supported a ward in the Cripplied Children's Hospital of Richmond, Va.

The local Theta Gamma Rho, first called Aloquin, changed its name to Theta Gamma Rho in November, 1918. Aloquin was founded December 4, 1915, by Ruth Ackerson, Ruth Welty, Idella Gunn Watson, Dorothy Parker Pietzner, and May Fay.

Theta Gamma Rho's petition to the national sorority was granted in 1927, and the group became Alpha Nu Chapter of Kappa Delta, October 23.

CHI DELTA OMEGA was founded on the campus as a local sorority on March 5, 1923, by seven girls. Last fall the chapter moved into their recently purchased home at 923 North Fountain Ave.

The colors are lavender and silver, and the flower is the Willowmere rose.

Chi Delta Omega became the oldest local sorority on the campus in 1929, when Tau Delta Theta received its charter from a national group.

SIGMA PHI BETA fraternity was known until July 28, 1927 as Sigma Sigma Omricron, which was founded at New York University on November 1, 1920. On January 7, 1928, Sigma Phi Beta and Phi Alpha Chi, having found their interests and purposes similar, became amalgamated. Since the amalgamation, the chapter roll has been increased to nine.

On April 25, 1924, the local, Sigma Pi Delta, which was founded on this campus in 1920, became Theta chapter.

Sigma Sigma Delta

SIGMA SIGMA DELTA was founded as the local "Lanterna Laetitiae" Club at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, November 11, 1924. It was organized as a democratic non-sorority group in order to provide the advantages of organized group life to those not affiliated with a sorority.

In April, 1928, final steps were taken to make Lanterna Laetitiae a national open sorority, known as Sigma Sigma Delta. Alpha chapter was established as Bucknell University. Since then chapters have been chartered at Susquehanna University, Selingsrove, Pennsylvania, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio, and Wittenberg College.

Sigma Sigma Delta is a non-sorority organization in that it draws its members from the non-sorority group. It is not anti-sorority, as its members are willing and eager to cooperate with the sororities in the improvement of campus social life. Therefore it is best known as an open sorority, because it invites into membership all girls not affiliated with another social sorority.

Ferncliff Dormitory League was founded October 11, 1923, by a group of non-sorority dormitory girls who desired a democratic social organization within the dormitory. The League remained a local association until May 14, 1928, when it became Delta chapter of Sigma Sigma Delta.

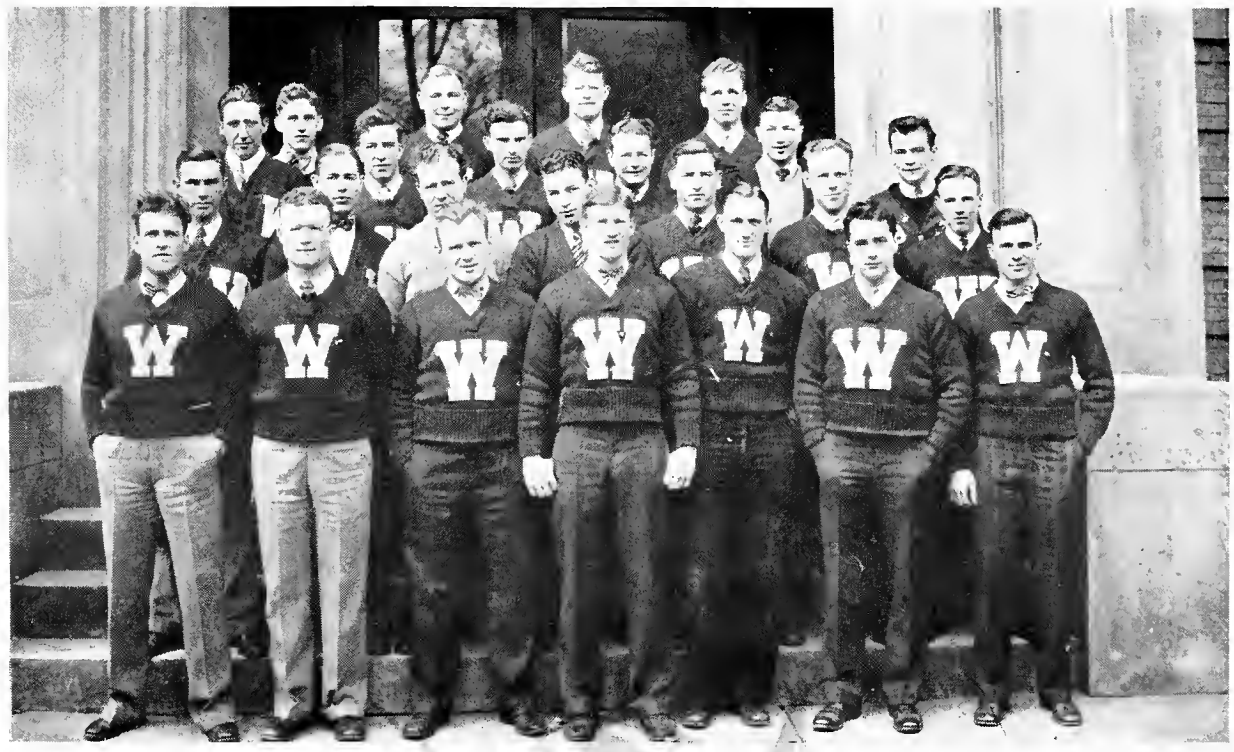
ATHLETICS

Varsity "W" Association



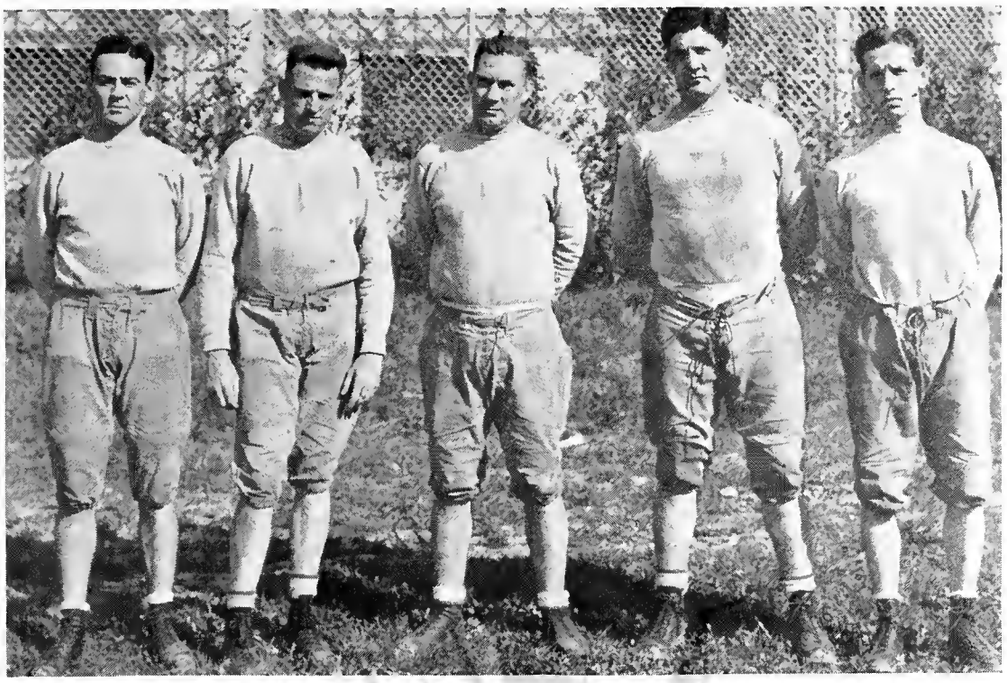
An athlete who has won a letter in a major sport automatically becomes a member of the Varsity "W" Association. The group is largely honorary in character, although it includes in its functions a definite desire to maintain a standard of ethics in athletic teams.

The association cooperated with the Board of Athletic Control in formulating athletic policies of the college.

Arnold Myers Lintz

Harold Arnold acted as varsity football manager throughout the 1929 season. Al Myers served as student trainer to members of the football, basketball, and track teams. Aiding Arnold in the managerial department, Donald Lintz served as assistant manager to the Lutheran gridmen.

Coaching Staff



Lindsay Herman Stobbs Miller Maurer

THE 1929 grid season opened with a new regime coaching football candidates. William T. Stobbs, one-time All-eastern back, was named to succeed E. R. Godfrey as head football coach. Stobbs is a product of Washington and Jefferson University, later serving as head football coach of Linsley Institute.

Mentor Stobbs was assisted by Joe Herman, head basketball coach, who tutored Lutheran backfield men. Homer Lindsay, former Geneva star, was also a member of the staff coaching varsity football.

Dutch Miller and Vic Maurer, former Wittenberg luminaries, coached the promising Frosh aggregation.

"THE KING IS DEAD . . . LONG LIVE THE KING"

The Buckeye Conference, strong central Ohio Intercollegiate Athletic Association, changed from the Big Six to the Big Five when Wittenberg College withdrew from membership after charges of professionalism were hurled, denied, reiterated. The controversy over the interpretation of amateurism smouldered for two years, was fanned into flame when O. C. Bird, Ohio University athletic director, hurled charges of professionalism at Wittenberg.

Other mentors followed Bird's lead and succeeded in forcing Wittenberg's resignation. Only Cincinnati, with whom Wittenberg has always enjoyed friendly athletic relations, refused to be party to the discriminatory, unsavory act.

Collegians chuckled, sports followers laughed at the charming situation whereby Ohio University, Ohio Wesleyan, Little Lord Fauntleroys of the gridiron, ejected the bad boy from their playground.

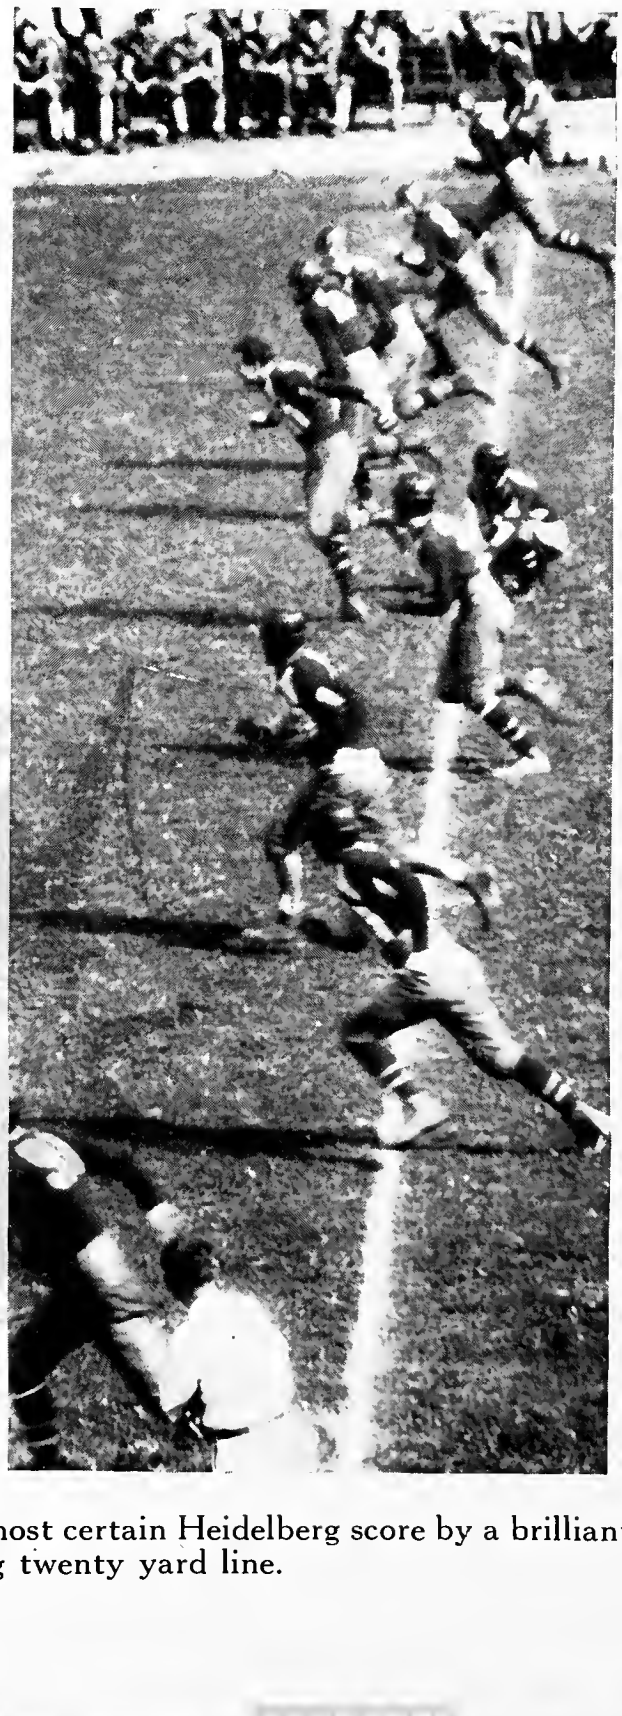
Bluffton College

WITTENBERG 27 — BLUFFTON 0

USING his entire squad during the game, Coach Stobbs began his career as football mentor at Wittenberg College by decisively defeating Bluffton in the season's opener, September 29th.

The scoring began early in the first quarter when a short pass—Lanning to Walton—resulted in a touchdown after a leisurely march down the field. Again in the second quarter the Lutherans staged a march from mid-field to the four-yard line, from which point Plummer plunged for the second touchdown.

In the second half Lanning followed almost perfect interference on a wide end run for 55 yards and a touchdown. A few minutes later Lanning caught a Bluffton punt on his own 25 yard line and twisted and squirmed his way through the entire opposing team in a beautiful run for the fourth touchdown. Captain Edwards made good three of the four attempts for point after touchdown.



Heidelberg University

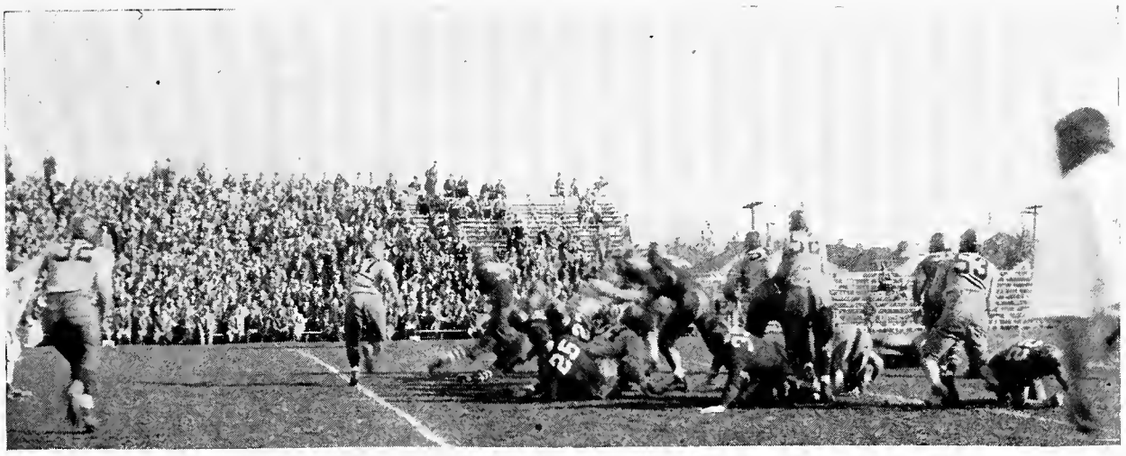
WITTENBERG 13 — HEIDELBERG 0

HEIDELBERG'S Student Princes furnished strong opposition for Wittenberg's Tigers when they clashed at the stadium October 19th. Taking advantage of the "breaks" in the form of six Wittenberg fumbles, the Tiffin team threatened to score on several occasions. Each time, however, the rather half-hearted Lutheran team came through to check the rally.

Wittenberg's first score came early in the first half when Captain Edwards recovered a Heidelberg fumble. A series of forward and lateral passes was climaxed by a touchdown plunge by Smith. Near the end of the game the redoubtable Doug intercepted a desperate Heidelberg pass and ran 75 yards for his second score.

Just before the final gun Price stopped an almost certain Heidelberg score by a brilliant tackle of Haley, who was free on the Wittenberg twenty yard line.

Ohio State University

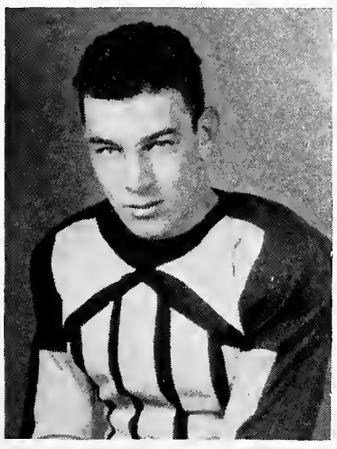


OHIO STATE 19 — WITTENBERG 0

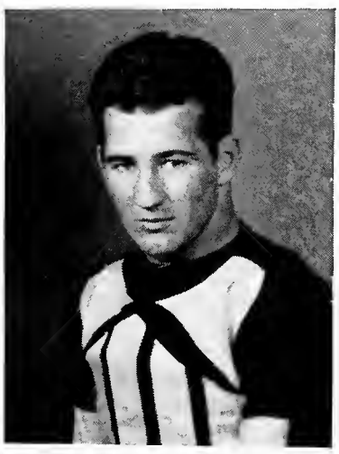
WITTENBERG bowed in defeat to a stronger team at Columbus, October 5th, after holding the Ohio State team to a scoreless tie for two quarters. In the third quarter McConnell intercepted a Wittenberg pass in mid-field, juggled the ball while running some twenty yards, then carried it over for a touchdown.

The Lutherans brought out a spectacular defense which held the Buckeyes scoreless until late in the last period when an intercepted pass and a blocked punt gave State two more touchdowns.

Edwards and Zarna on the line, and Smith and Price in the backfield were important cogs in Wittenberg's magnificant defensive machine.

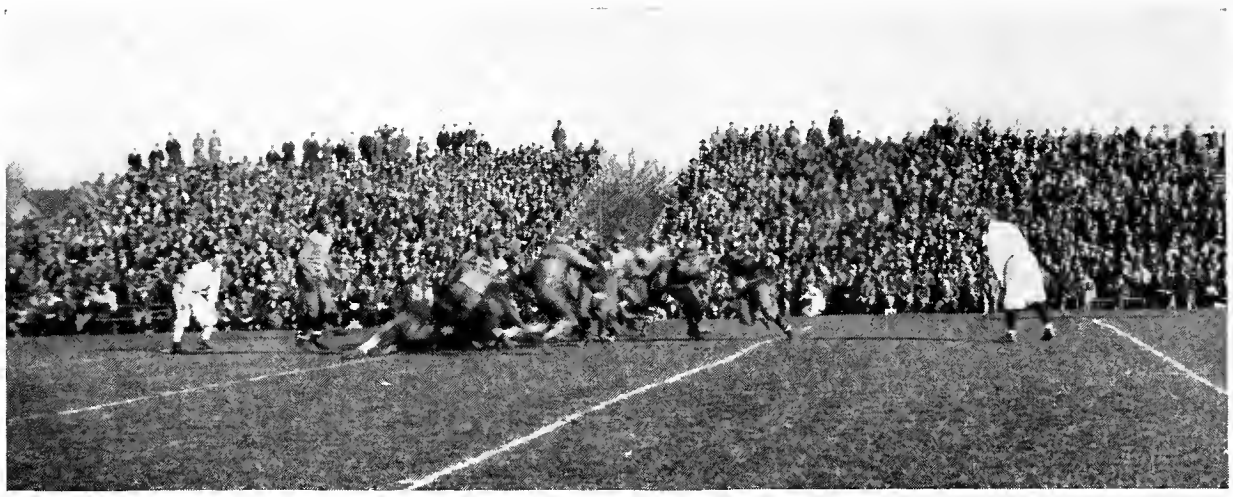


Singer



Plummer

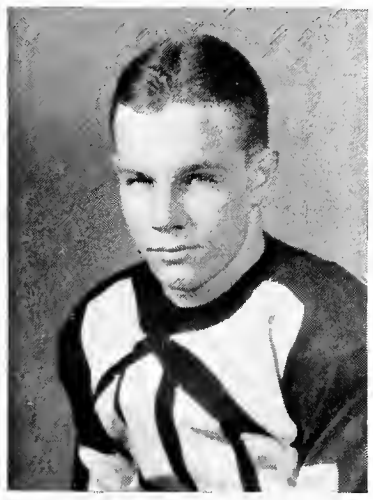
Denison University



WITTENBERG 20 — DENISON 0

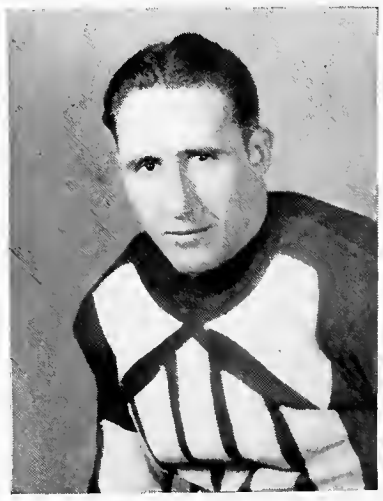
PLAYING in a steady rain before a Dad's Day crowd, Wittenberg's Fighting Tigers ran, passed, and bucked their way to a 20-0 victory over Denison in the first Buckeye game of the season, October 12th. Wittenberg gained a total of 230 yards from scrimmage while holding the Granville eleven to 38 yards.

Twice in the first quarter Smith bucked the ball over for touchdowns after Kazmeier's brilliant cut-backs, and Smith's line plunges had placed the ball in scoring position. Again in the third quarter Wittenberg scored when Lanning tossed a pass to Marty behind the Denison goal line.



Lanning

A shower of Denison passes threatened to break the scoring deadlock in the fourth quarter, but a great Wittenberg pass defense completely smothered the aerial attack, and the game ended without further scoring.



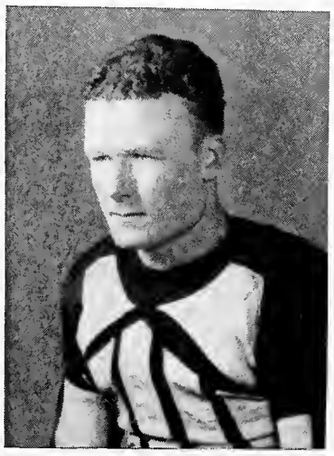
Holsapfel

Miami University

MIAMI 3 — WITTENBERG 0

AN EXCURSION crowd from Wittenberg had an otherwise perfect day wrecked when a Miami field goal in the first period proved to be the only score for either team. The Big Red clearly outplayed the heavier Lutherans during the first half and well into the third period, when Lutheran substitutes brought new life into the game. In the last quarter a forward pass from a place kick formation fell short of a first down by inches, giving the ball to Miami, and averting a possible Lutheran score. With four minutes to play Wittenberg opened a passing barrage in scoring territory. A long pass, headed for the waiting arms of Ted Marty, was intercepted by a Miami backfield man to stop the final threat of the visitors.

Smith, Plummer, and Price led the attack in the second half.



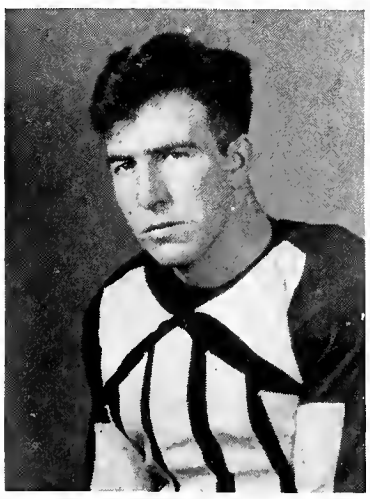
Harre

Edwards

University of Cincinnati

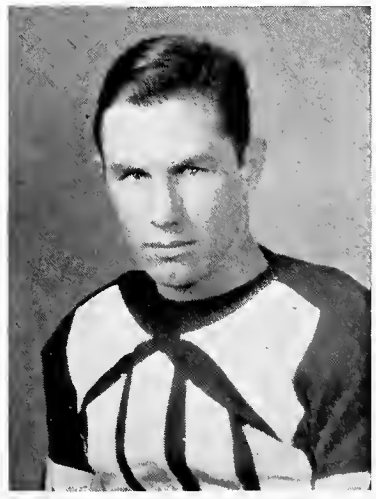
WITTENBERG 13 — CINCINNATI 7

AFTER floundering in a sea of mud in the Wittenberg stadium for three quarters; after losing the ball three times deep in enemy territory; the Lutherans turned a pass intercepted in mid-field by Edwards into a hard-earned touchdown. Two runs totalling 20 yards by Plummer and a long pass, Smith to Walton, resulted in the score. Shortly after the next kick-off Plummer made a spectacular return of a punt to bring the ball to the Bearcats' 35 yard line. From this point a long pass was hurled to Marty who caught the pigskin while lying on his back in the mud, back of Cincy's goal line.



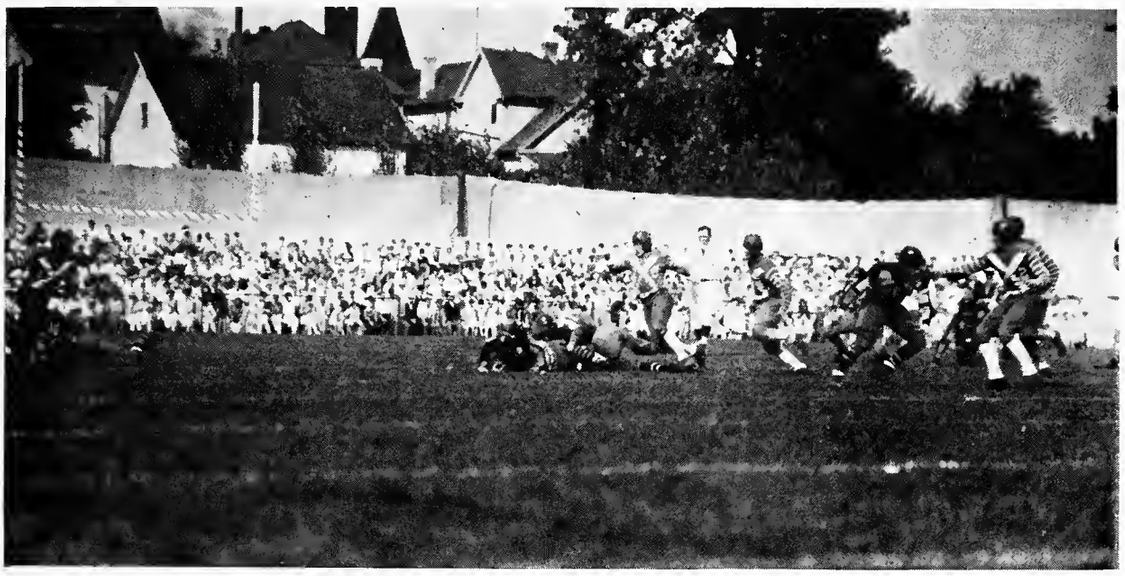
Smith

With but a few minutes to play, Edwards kicked off to Cincinnati's five yard line. Bursiek, a substitute half-back, brought the crowd to its feet by returning the ball through the entire Wittenberg team the length of the field for Cincinnati's only score.



Harris

Ohio Wesleyan University

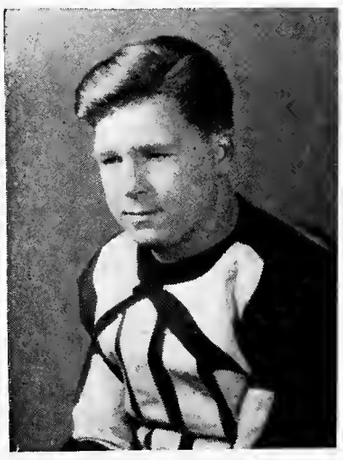


WITTENBERG 0 — WESLEYAN 0

ON A DRY, fast field; in a clear, invigorating air; Wittenberg and her traditional rival, Ohio Wesleyan, fought to a scoreless tie before a capacity home-coming crowd, November 9th. Marty took the first kick-off of the game on his own five yard line, and carried the ball to mid-field before being stopped by the last defense man guarding the Wesleyan goal line. Edwards attempted a place kick from the 40 yard line but the kick was short. A fumble on the Bishop's seven yard line in the second half ended a long march down the field.

At the beginning of the second half Plummer took the kick-off and was not stopped until he crossed the goal line 90 yards away. The referee aroused the crowd to anger by refusing to allow the touchdown, ruling that Plummer had stepped out of bounds on his own 48 yard line.

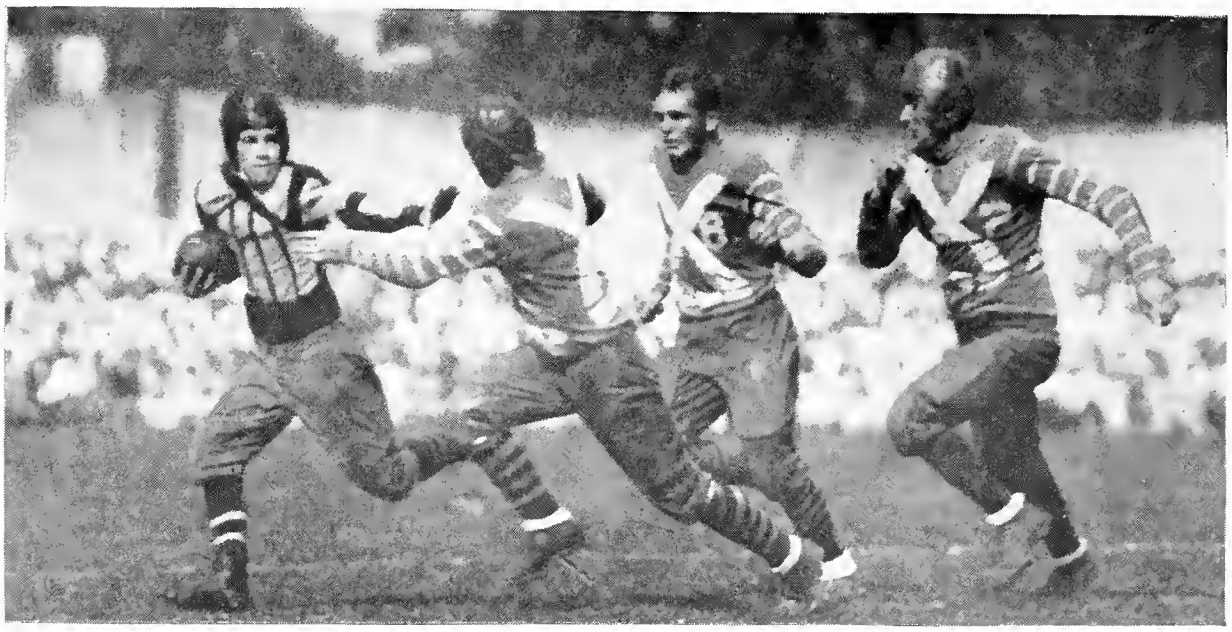
Campbell led a Wesleyan drive which fell seven yards short of a touchdown in the latter part of the game. Wittenberg retaliated by carrying the ball to Wesleyan's 25 yard line as the game ended.



Price

Walton

Washington and Jefferson College



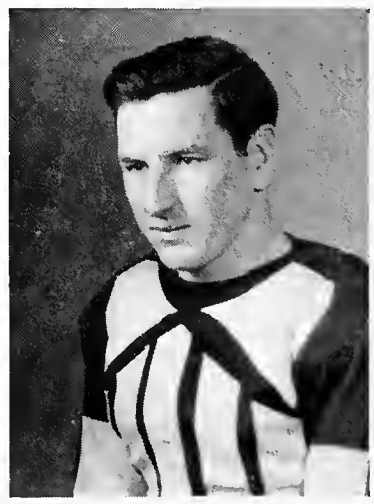
WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON 15 — WITTENBERG 0

A LARGE contingent of Wittenberg fans treked to Washington, Pennsylvania, where they saw the Tiger go down fighting before a strong W. & J. team on November 9th. The playing field, used also for practice by the Presidents, was bare of sod and had been turned into a veritable sea of mud by a heavy rain. Wittenberg's heavier opponents were able to gain ground consistently on bucks and sweeping end runs.

Rush scored both touchdowns with a forty yard run and a twenty yard run in the first and last quarters respectively. On a fake punt formation in the last period Paetznick was thrown behind his own goal line for a safety when he attempted to carry the ball from the eight yard line.

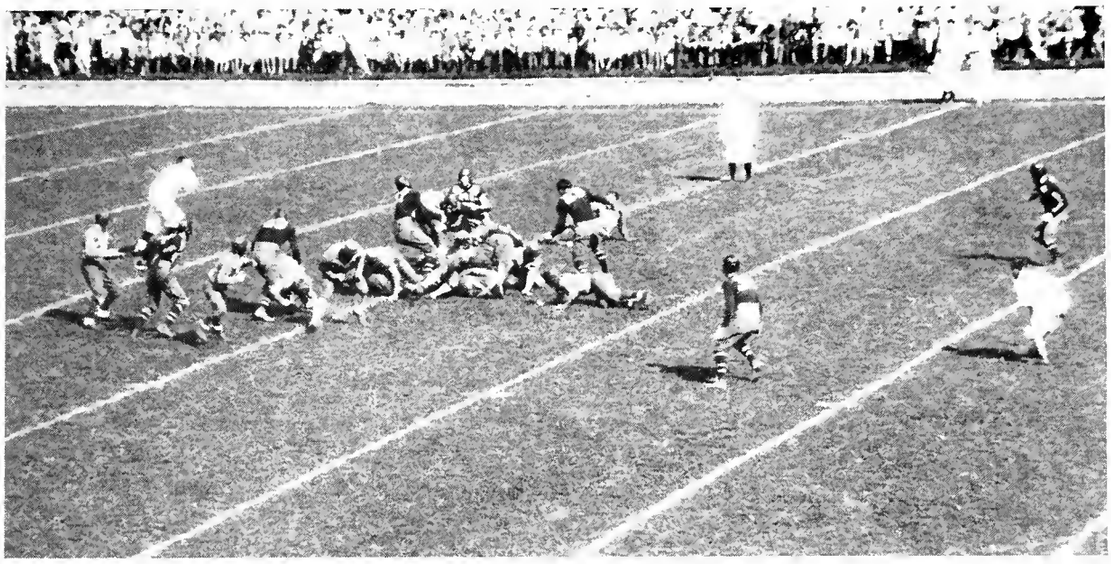
Edwards was the mainstay of the strong Wittenberg defense, while Plummer played a good game in the backfield.

Schneider



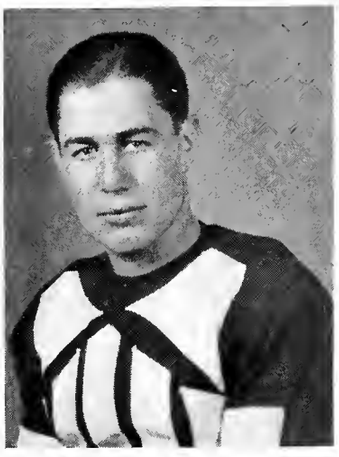
Kazmeier

Ohio University



OHIO 33 — WITTENBERG 6

PLAYING without Edwards, Trubey, and Plummer, all of whom were injured in the W. & J. game, the Lutherans went down to defeat before Ohio University's Bobcats in a game played in Ohio's new stadium, November 22d. The strong and versatile Ohio machine, undefeated champion of the Buckeye, was able to gain ground almost at will although three times the Lutherans held for downs in the shadow of their own goal posts.



Paetznick

In the third quarter with the score 27 to 0, Wittenberg showed championship form in a drive down the field for a touchdown. It was the second score made against Ohio during the season. The game was played on a soggy field, with a chilling wind occasionally carrying flurries of snow across the gridiron.

Trubey

University of Dayton

WITTENBERG 8 — DAYTON 0

IN THE final game of the season Wittenberg returned to winning form, defeating the Dayton Flyers 8 to 0 in the annual Thanksgiving Day classic. The full team, with the injured men back in harness, represented Wittenberg and outplayed Dayton in every phase of the game. Wittenberg made eight first downs while holding Dayton to two.

A series of lateral passes and reverse plays in the second quarter, with Lanning and Smith doing most of the ball carrying, ended when Lanning crashed over for the touchdown. In the third quarter Beacom, a substitute end, broke through the Dayton line to throw a Dayton back behind his own goal line for a safety, completing the afternoon's scoring.

Edwards, playing with a weak shoulder, won the commendation of Walter Eckersall, all-time All-American, who refereed the game. Paetznick also played a stellar role in the last act of his football career. In spite of the extreme cold the game was fast and fumbles were infrequent.

Freshman Football

FORTY-FIVE men responded when Coaches Miller and Maurer issued the first call for freshman football candidates on September 10th. Of the forty-five freshman grid warriors, fifteen had come to Wittenberg with enviable high school records, while several more were discovered who will give veterans a battle for varsity berths next year.

The monotony of hard work, with which every freshman grid candidate is familiar, was even more intense this year than it has been in previous years. Competition was keen, and any yearling who earned a regular position was well worth the fifty grand a year—or whatever it was the Buckeye outcasts are paying him for his services to Alma Mater.

On the line, Art Meder, Forest Neuman, Allan Stobbs, Joe Mudre, Miles Pence, and Ralph Rittersbach showed to advantage.

Bill Fenner and "Tim" Brewster were the mainstays of the backfield, although a fine supporting cast including Nelson Orth, Bob Harmon, and others helped cause trouble for the varsity.

Howard E. "Red" Maurer, in his last year of varsity competition, piloted the Wittenberg basketeers through a twenty-game schedule with a record of 15 wins and 5 losses. Captain Maurer, versatile, three-letter man, displayed the same cool judgment that made him the hero of the 1928 football victory over Wesleyan.

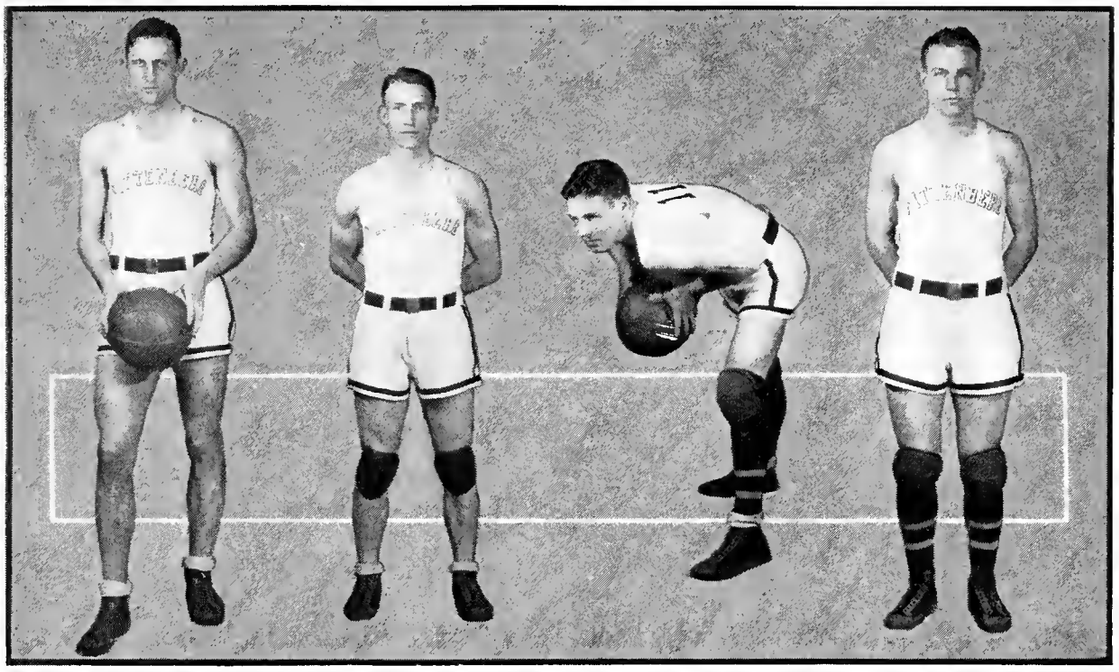
Basketball for the Season

WITTENBERG'S basketball team ended its first season in the new field house with a record of fifteen wins and five defeats. Beginning early in the season as a poorly coordinated group of players the Tigers ended the year's play with at least one victory over every squad met. Ohio University, Wesleyan, Ashland, Miami, and Cincinnati were the teams to defeat the Lutherans.

Playing an erratic game at Bluffton, December 19, Wittenberg scored an unimpressive victory, 29-24, with Kish and Kreeger leading the scoring with eight points each. The next evening at Springfield Coach Hermann introduced his team and new floor to spectators, who saw sixteen men used in an easy win over Georgetown, by a 29-18 count. Eisele, with nine points, led the Lutheran scorers. The starting line-up of Captain Maurer and Eisele at forward, Kreeger at center, and Rearick and Kish at guard, showed potentialities of the strong team into which it later developed.

December 27 the Lutherans going to Ashland after a brief vacation, met their first defeat. Leading 17-7 at the half Ashland could not be stopped, and the game ended 36-23. Continuing the road trip to Cleveland, Wittenberg met and defeated John Carroll December 28 by a score of 31-21. Kreeger and Maurer, who scored ten and nine points respectively, led the smooth attack which was witnessed by a large crowd. December 30 the last of the games on the road trip was played at Dover, against a professional team made up of former college stars. Maurer, playing before a "home town" crowd scored 14 points. The last of his field goals, just before the whistle, wrecked the hopes of Dover and the game ended 32-29.



Kreeger Greist Smith Lanning

Against the Transylvania team, tired, and out of condition from a long road trip, Wittenberg ran up a score of 55-22 in the first game played at Springfield while the college was in session. Eisele, with 14 points, was highest scorer of the fourteen men used in the contest.

Dayton offered Wittenberg strong opposition January 6 when Lutheran shots seemed to be consistently wild, but Captain Maurer scored 10 points and led his team to a 25-20 win. Rearick played a strong defensive game, holding the Dayton threat, Ladner, to two goals.

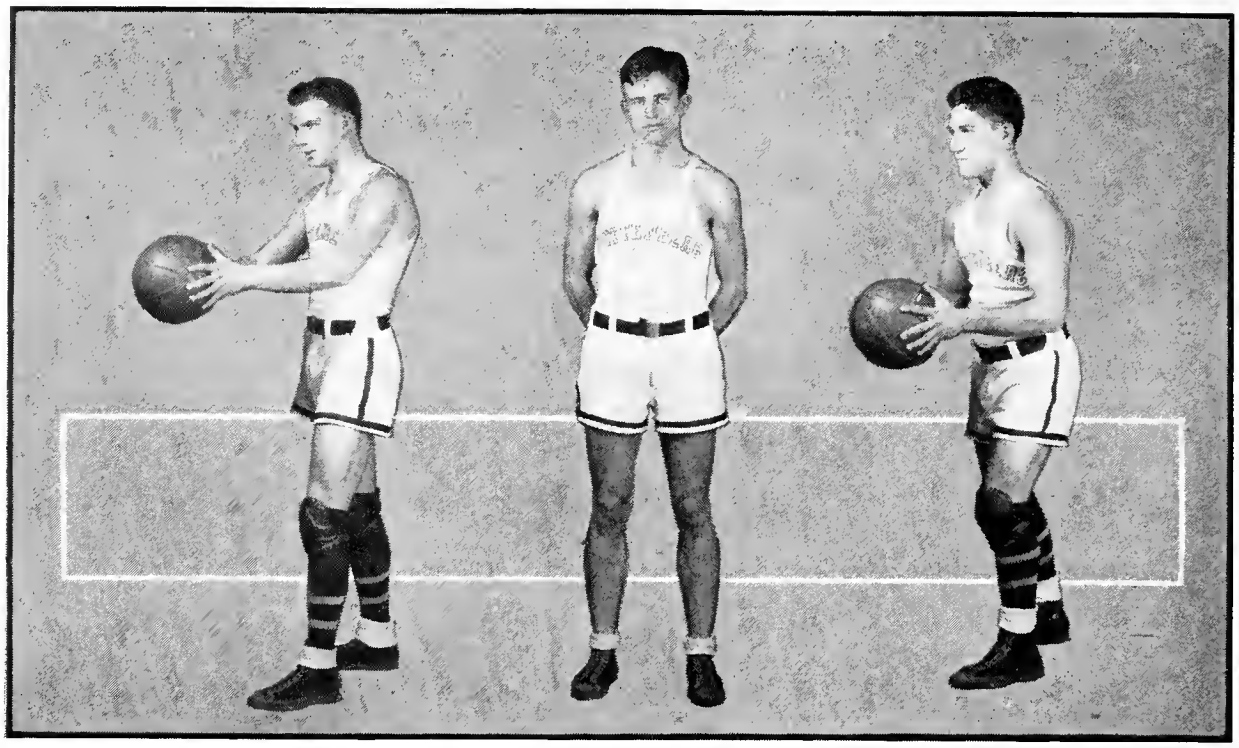
Wittenberg lost her first B. A. A. game to Miami January 11, after playing a tight defensive game the first half, and holding the score at 11-10. The second half Miami showed more fight and better team work and ran up twenty more points while Wittenberg scored only eleven.

January 14 Heidelberg invaded Springfield with a strong reputation for defensive work. Their attack against Wittenberg seemed weak and the Lutherans played a clever brand of ball to win 36-13.

Kish, playing at guard, not only broke up many of Ohio's scoring plays, but also made ten points to lead the Tigers to a 31-19 victory when the Bobcats came to Springfield January 17. The game was fast and rough.

With the score 13-6 in Cincinnati's favor at the half, Wittenberg came back and knotted the score at 19-19 with only a minute to play in a game at Cincinnati January 21. Gervers, a substitute forward for Cincinnati, ruined Wittenberg's chances with a field goal with twenty seconds to go, and the game ended 21-19.

Gandrup, flashy Wesleyan forward, proved too much for Wittenberg January 25, when he scored 18 points in the Lutherans first defeat on their home floor. Kreeger scored 10 points but could not get the tip-off against Siegenthaler. The game ended 41-30.



Hackenberg Anzinger Siewert

Miami, winner of an earlier game, was beaten at Springfield, February 1. Although they led at the half by four points a fighting team in the second half snowed them under, and Wittenberg amassed a total of 30 points to Miami's 24.

Leading by one point at the half, Wittenberg came back strong during the second to win against Denison 47-36 in a contest at Granville, February 5. Kreeger scored 18 points before he was thrown out for fouls in the second half.

Four points in an overtime period gave Wittenberg its second win over Dayton February 8. The score at the half was 10-5 in Dayton's favor; at the end of the game, 24-20 for Wittenberg. Kreeger with 13 points was high scorer.

February 12 Wittenberg traveled to Cincinnati to take St. Xavier into camp in a non-conference game. The score was 27-20. The next Saturday, February 15, the team of the University of Cincinnati was the victim in the dedication of the new Physical Education-Health Building. The Bearcats, who had defeated Wittenberg earlier in the season, and one of the strongest B. A. A. teams, lost a thrilling contest before a capacity crowd by a 29-18 score.

After losing to the comparatively weak Ohio University team in a loose game February 19 by a score of 43-31 the "Fighting Lutherans" showed that they deserved that name when they completely outplayed the Bishop team at Delaware, February 22. Wittenberg scored ten points before Wesleyan made a point. Eisele scored fifteen points and was directly responsible for most of the other twenty-one made by the Tigers. The final score was 36-25. At no time was Wesleyan within four points of a tie score.

Led by Kreeger, who scored seventeen points, and Eisele, who scored only one but played the cleverest game exhibited before Wittenberg fans during the season, Wittenberg ran down the curtain on basketball for the season with a 41-22 victory over Denison February 28. The Baptists at the opening of the season were the B. A. A. cellar occupants but before the Wittenberg game had defeated Wesleyan, Ohio, and Miami. Captain Maurer, in his last college game, played a hard, fighting brand of ball against a team that refused to be discouraged by the one-sided score.

Freshman Basketball

NEW gymnasium facilities made possible a new system of freshman basketball at Wittenberg. Frosh hoop artists for the first time met teams from outside the school in games staged as preliminaries to inter-collegiate contests.

The call for yearling basketball candidates was answered promptly by the first year men who reported thirty strong. Coach Stobbs, varsity football mentor, took charge of the men and rapidly developed a formidable team. Stobb's charges administered decisive defeats to some of the best semi-pro outfits in the city.

Koenig, center, and Hesidence and Heitzman, forwards, are almost sure to see varisity action next year. McAfee, O'Toole, Jones, Orth, Roddy, Harmon, and Fenner will give veterans a race for positions. Harter, center, and Pitzer, forward, entered school the second semester and will be excellent varsity material for the last half of next year's schedule.

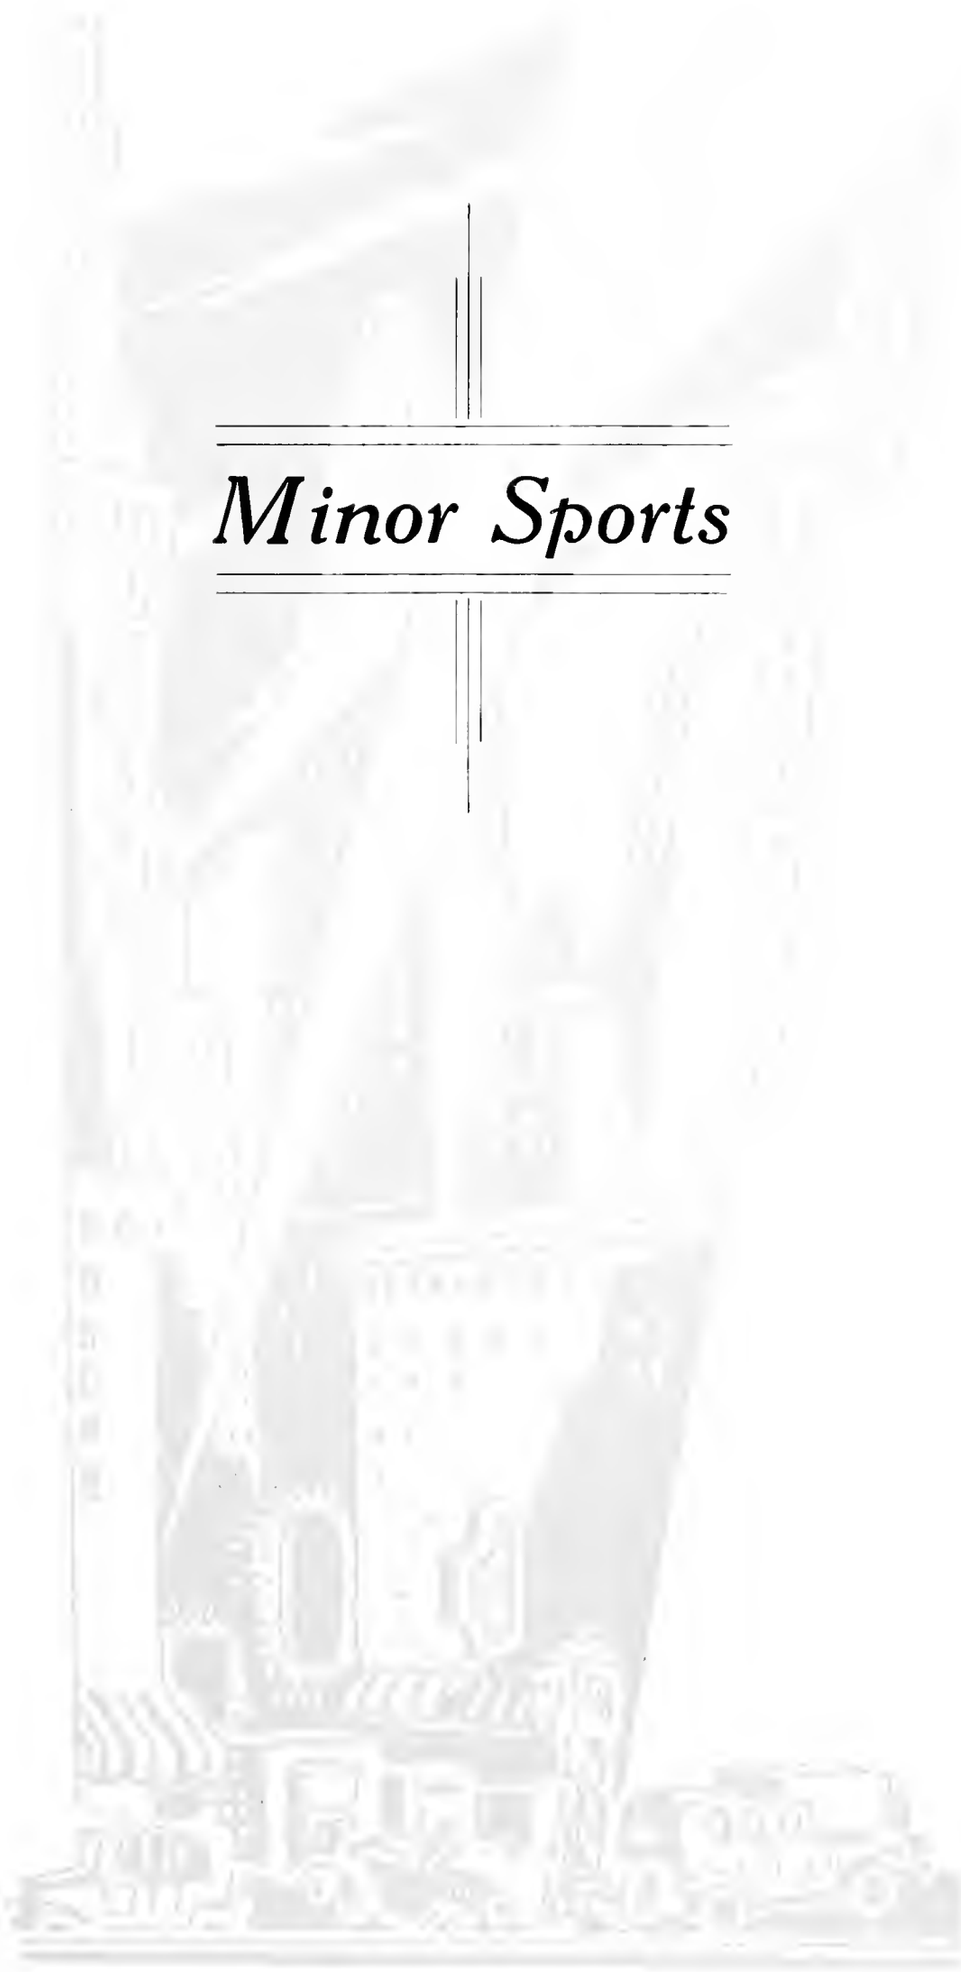
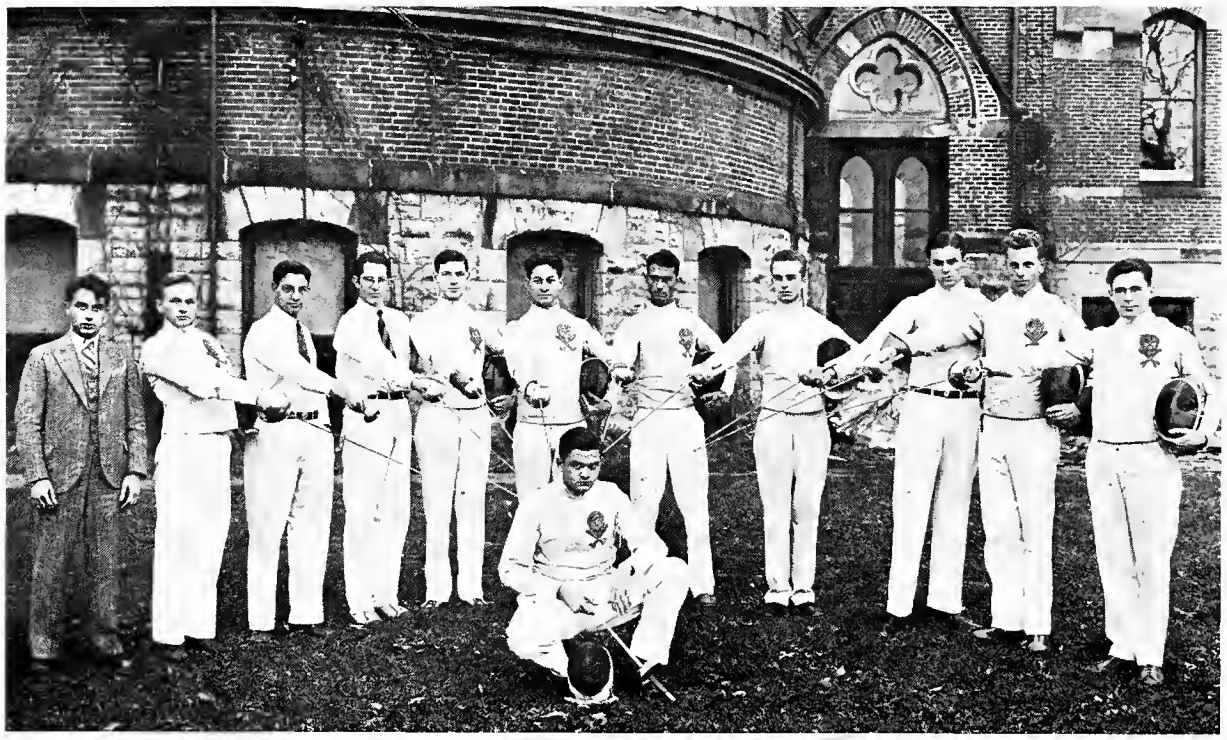
Minor Sports





Fencing

IN ITS second year as a recognized branch of inter-collegiate sport at Wittenberg, fencing developed rapidly into a popular and skilfully waged competition. Wittenberg foilsmen were instrumental in establishing the Ohio Intercollegiate Fencing Association. The association was the outgrowth of a meeting of tennis enthusiasts from various Ohio colleges gathered on the Wittenberg campus.

The Lutherans arranged a schedule which included matches with Ohio Wesleyan, Earlham, Ohio State, Antioch, Youngstown College, Ohio Northern, and Cincinnati. The local swordsmen finished the schedule winner of the association trophy. League records show that Wittenberg won seven matches and were defeated twice.

Van Wunder captained the fencing team while Paul Bressler acted as manager. Other members of the team were: Lyman Osborne, Roscoe Rilling, Charles Balmer, Vladimir Telberg, Frank Lindsay, Bill Boger, Earl Simendinger, and Ted Zimmerman.

Tennis

VARSITY tennis, heretofore a matter of undergraduate enterprise, was officially sponsored by the college athletic officials during the 1930 season. Olson, Morris, Neese, Wilson, were mainstays of the varsity squad which experienced a fairly successful season.

Managers arranged a difficult schedule in which were included games with the following schools: Antioch, Denison, Ohio Wesleyan, Earlham, Cincinnati. The Wittenberg netmen, ineffective in early season games, rounded into a powerful squad by the end of the schedule.

Followers of the pastime voice predictions that a tennis league, comparable with the new fencing association is about to be formed. Such an organization would do much to further the interests of collegiate and intercollegiate tennis.

Earl Morris, one-time college singles champion, captained the team through the season.

Intramural Athletics

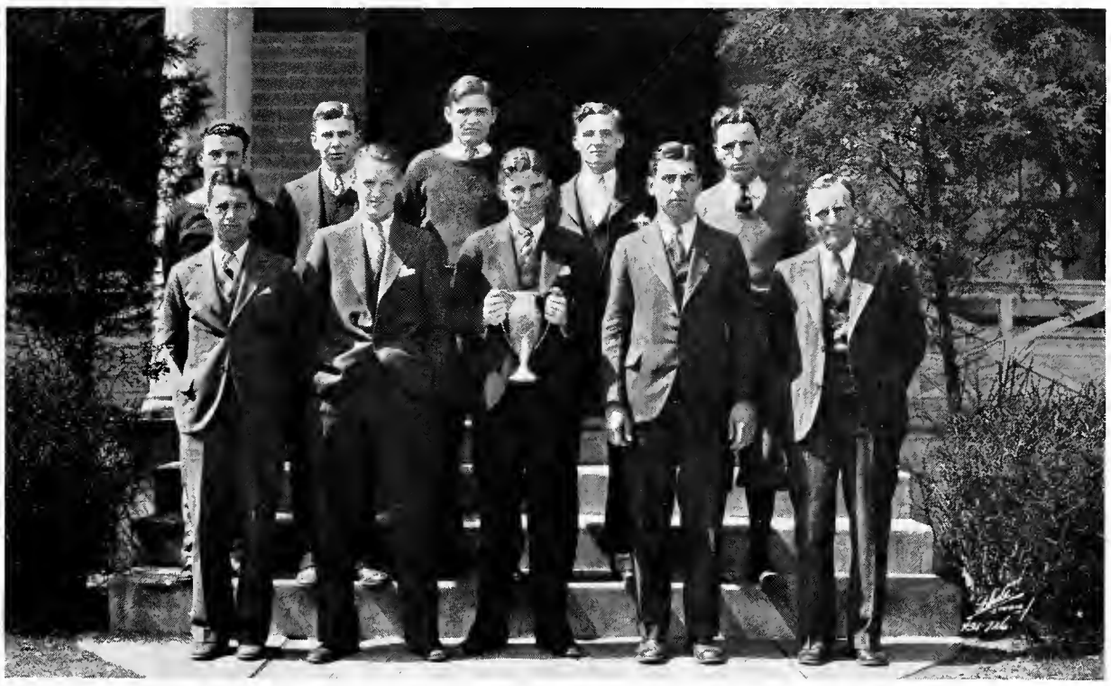
Inter-Fraternity Softball

INTER-FRATERNITY softball warriors began a seige in four sectors simultaneously, April 29, when eight teams brought their heavy artillery into play in the opening battles of the annual softball war. Four of the squadrons became hors de combat in the course of the afternoon. Emerging victorious were four teams, including in their number the bloodthirsty Alpha Tau Omega battlers.

The A. T. O. softball players have never been displaced from their position of eminence, and brother noncombatants are dusting a place on the fraternal mantel to accommodate a new cup. "Dope" Kreeger does a consistently good job of hurling for the first placers. Miller, Maurer, Rearick, and Kreeger constitute a menacing array of batting talent.

There are ten groups entered in the League: Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Kappa Psi, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Gamma Delta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Mu Delta, Kappa Phi, Chi Sigma Nu, Alpha Theta Alpha, and the Commons Club. Although it is still any team's pennant, the Alpha Taus should coast into first place without excessive exertion.

Inter-Fraternity Basketball

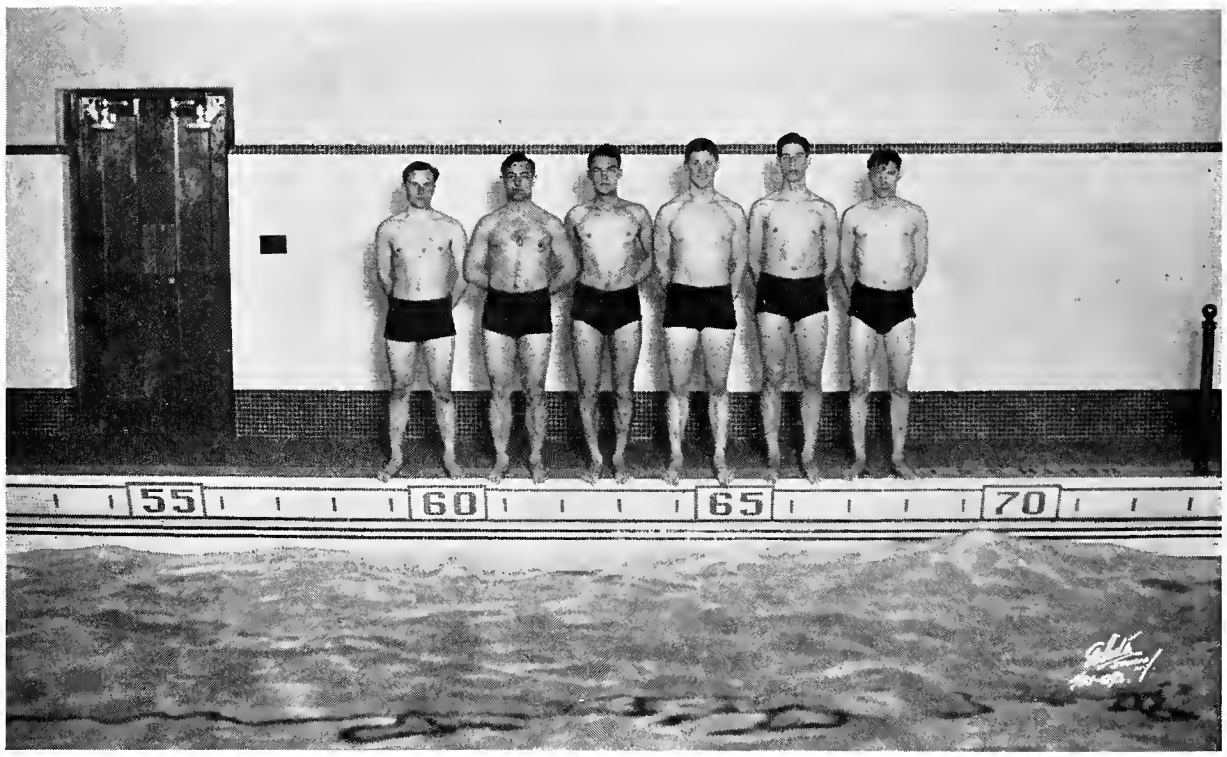


EMERGING unscathed from a hectic season replete with startling upsets and bewildering complications, Phi Gamma Delta annexed the Inter-fraternity basketball trophy.

The Phi Gams centered a versatile attack around the elongated center, King, to wreck the aspirations of other Greek letter hoopsters. The Fiji team included several veterans of last year's second place aggregation.

Pi Kappa Alpha and Alpha Tau Omega furnished strong opposition to the winners. The season produced a better brand of ball in nearly every team than was displayed last year. All games were played in the college gymnasium, and large crowds of rabid fans treked to the Health Building for nearly every contest.

Inter-Fraternity Swimming



WITH the new McGilvray natatorium available, intra-mural swimming appeared on the campus for the first time. In the inter-fraternity competition sponsored by the new department of Intra-mural athletics, Phi Kappa Psi easily won first place.

The Phi Psi aggregation was composed of Culler, Phil Schneider, Brewster, Keck, White, and Bingham. Phil Schneider starred in all events in which he entered. Wood, Alpha Tau Omega natator, showed invincible form in the diving events.

Swimming, in its first year as an intra-mural sport, brought out keen competition and drew a large group of men who would not have engaged in athletics otherwise. Crowded galleries witnessed the matches and thoroughly enjoyed the new phase of activity.

Women's Athletic Association

SPONSORING volleyball, basketball, hiking, softball, and other sports for co-eds constitutes the main activity of the Women's Athletic Association. The organization was founded in 1925, and is a member of the National Amateur Federation.

The Wittenberg W. A. A. participated in the annual "play day" at the University of Cincinnati, March 1. On Hallowe'en the members held a Hallowe'en party at the old gymnasium. The event was the last function in the old structure, which has since given way to the new field house.

Eligibility for membership rests on the completion of one semester's work in the department of physical education. Monica White was president of W. A. A. in 1929-30.

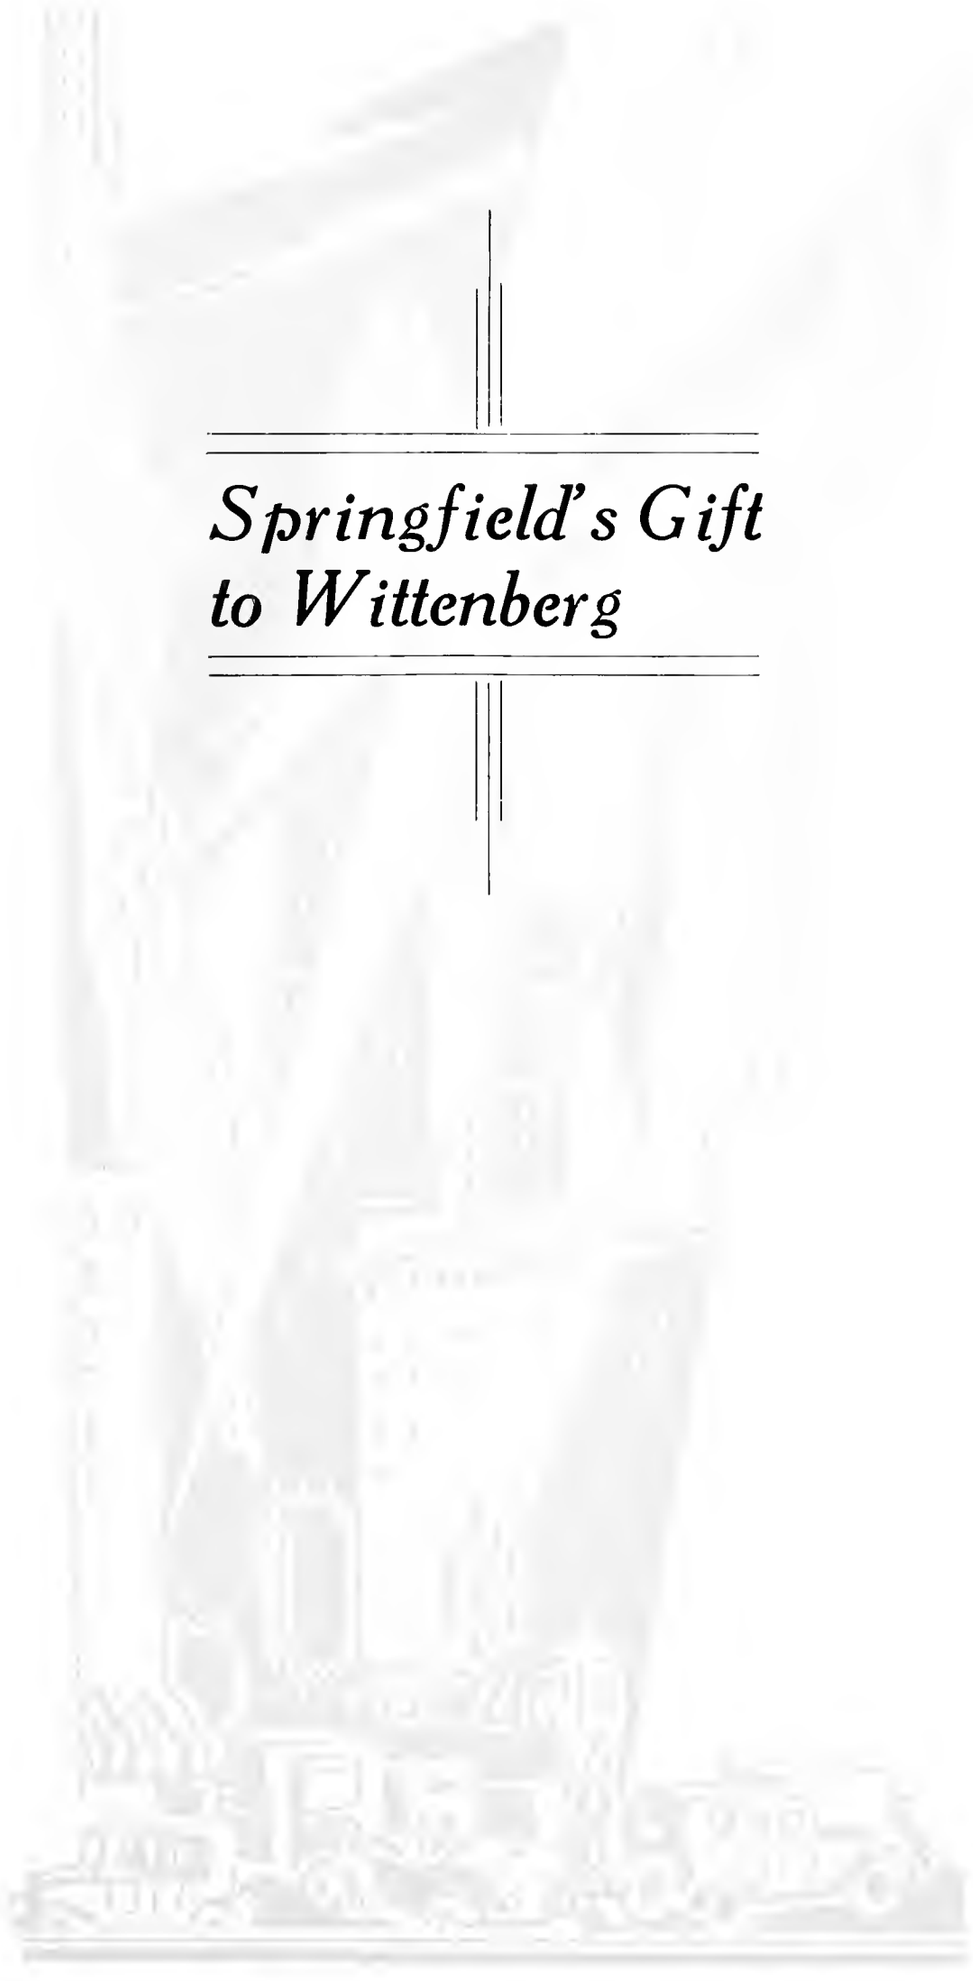
Springfield's Gift to Wittenberg



Springfield's Gift to Wittenberg

THROUGH nearly a score of years Wittenberg College has recognized a need for a modern gymnasium that grew more and more imperative with each succeeding year. In 1928 the administration launched a drive that terminated only when a splendid new building took its place on the campus.

The campaign drive of 1928 was conducted by a "citizen's committee" composed of men who gave unstintingly of their time and money in securing the funds which made possible the project. Springfielders rallied in support of the drive and presented the committee with over a quarter of a million dollars in the course of the campaign.

With financial backing assured, ground was broken for the $400,000 structure November 24, 1928. The gymnasium and Field House, fifth building to be erected on the campus since 1923, was ready for occupancy in the fall of 1929. Superb in architectural design, splendidly equipped, wisely planned, the structure won immediate and voluble commendation from all sides.

Formal presentation of the building was made February 14, 15, in an impressive ceremony. The college accepted the gymnasium, designated it "Springfield's gift to Wittenberg," appreciated fully the benevolence of a splendid city.

A MODERN Field House and gymnasium are, of course, the outstanding features of the building. There are many other points of interest in the physical education plant, however, which make it one of the best structures of its kind in the country.

The chief attraction of the ground floor is the swimming pool, 75 feet long and 25 feet wide. The natatorium underlies a skylight which permits exposure to the sun's rays throughout the day. Locker rooms and showers occupy much of the remaining ground floor space.

The health building includes a large electrically equipped stage, reception rooms, trophy corridors, team rooms, class rooms, and faculty offices. The second floor presents corrective gymnasium facilities, special exercise rooms, and a hall equipped to accommodate student meetings. On the third floor is a series of examination and exercise rooms.

A large central heating plant located in the northwest corner of the building supplies the heat for five campus buildings including the gymnasium itself.

Collegiana

Foreword to

"Collegiana"

THE FOLLOWING PAGES OF THIS VOLUME CONSTITUTE THE SECTION FOR WHICH WE HAVE COINED THE WORD "COLLEGIANA." YOU MAY NOT LIKE IT. YOU MAY BE OFFENDED. WE DON'T CARE.

WE DO FEEL THAT THIS SECTION PRESENTS SOMETHING MORE THAN REGULAR YEAR-BOOK "FEATURE STUFF." IT IS A SYNTHESIS OF COLLEGIATE THOUGHT, A CROSS-SECTION OF UNDERGRADUATE MENTALITY.

THE HUMOR IS BROAD, SLAP-STICK BURLESQUE—COLLEGIANS CRY FOR IT. PERSONAL REFERENCES ARE ACRID, BITTER—REMARKABLY TRUE TO LIFE AS IT IS LIVED BY UNDERGRADUATES. THE FEW PASSAGES OF LITERARY OR PHILOSOPHICAL VALUE ARE EXPRESSIONS OF A THINKING MINORITY.

THE SECTION IS GAY, AND WISE, AND SAD, AND FOOLISH. CYNICISM AND IDEALISM MINGLE IN A PHILOSOPHY OF IMMATURITY — THE PRICELESS HERITAGE OF YOUTH.

A Senior Counsels his Son, a Freshman

¶ My son, I would counsel you in the ways of the world. I would that my experience might be as a guide to your impetuous young feet. I well know that you will listen gravely. You will agree respectfully. And then you will travel your own road in your own manner. You will belittle my sage observations. You will disregard my entreaties. You will ignore my exhortations. It is the way of youth . . . and life.

¶ I counsel you, my son, that you learn to love madly—and to forget quickly. For love is a tonic which, taken to excess, becomes a poison. "'Tis better to have loved and lost . . . yes, much better."

¶ Remember that an hour with men around a fireplace at dawn is more to be desired than a hundred classes. . . . For dawn hates triteness even as it hates platitudes.

¶ My son, avoid the life of the "go-getter". His philosophy is a fallacy; his doctrine a dogma.

¶ Consider the professor. Youth he has known, and folly. He is not infallible, neither is he incorruptible. Treat him with respect but not with adulation. He is a man—no more, no less.

¶ Life will give you three great blessings; love, laughter, and leisure. Consider the first as a malady; the second as a panacea; the third as an art.

¶ The campus politician is the world's greatest martyr. He sacrifices his self-respect and the respect of his fellow men for an existence of back-slapping and hand-shaking. He is a pagan whose idols fall and crumble to dust even while he sacrifices himself upon their altars.

¶ Education is a will o' the wisp which will lead you through dark forests of cynicism and skepticism into the clear sunlight of mental tranquility. I exhort you that you forsake not the forest for the illusory path of narrowness and bigotry.

EXTRA! DAILY HALF-WITT EXTRA!

Sensational Expose of Frat Life!!!

Blarnegie Foundation Report Released

—o—

Brothers Moan as Secret Societies are Panned

Tomorrow the Assassinated Press will carry a copyrighted article on college fraternal organizations, will include the merciless report of the Blarnegie Foundation. In this issue the DAILY HALF-WITT, always intrepid, progressive, agressive, publishes excerpts from that report. The historical essays anent divers Greek bodies are found voluminous, vociferous, in the Blarnegie Foundation files. The DAILY HALF-WITT, fearless, facile—motto, "Veritas uber Alles"—presents its own modern outline of history.

CHI OMEGA

It seems that a couple of traveling salesmen stopped at a farm house . . . and the farmer's daughter wasn't home! The fact is that she was at collitch founding a home for farmer's daughters who lived away from traveling salesmen's routes. The home was later called Chi Omega, although it is frequently called much worse names. The colors are pastel shades, trimmed with white lead.

Each year the sisters in dear old Chi Omega present a prize to some hard working student. All of which proves that they have charity—they had to have faith and hope to keep going as long as they have. The girls still have Jack Bowman, and a singing cup.

PHI KAPPA PSI

Phi Kappa Psi was never founded, it happened—like an earthquake or a plague. It was rumored that a canned heat eater had something to do with it, but that poor soul denied having any knowledge of the crime. The fraternity colors are awful. The coat-of-arms is a keg surmounted by a high hat and a couple of soda straws.

The boys are trying to show that students can be both scholars and gentlemen. They have not proved their point, yet they have sundry scholarship cups. Draw your own conclusions. The fraternity has "Bill Vare" Olson, as he is known in local political circles, and several used Fords.

BETA THETA PI

Beta Theta Pi was founded on the morning after the night before by Mephistopheles, Lon Chaney, and an unidentified tramp. It seems that the boys had been whooping it up when a Greek policeman censored the words to "Down in the Lehigh Valley," substituting "Beta Theta Pi"—which means the same thing. The boys never bothered about adopting any colors, unless you count the characteristic prison pallor.

A rumor that Beta Theta Pi was a fraternity was branded a "malicious lie" by a senatorial investigation committee, working in conjunction with the Department of Vital Statistics. Well, anyway, the boys have Markley, Brother "Jazz," and a few more big shots.

ALPHA DELTA PI

Amelia Clutts, eminent suffragette and birth-control advocate, and Sophie Davenport, moonstruck, moronic, and middle-aged, founded Alpha Delta Pi during the cold spell in '96. The colors are black and blue—and what they signify is nobody's business.

The sisters heard Van Riper lecture on "Mass Production" once, and proceeded to produce a new house. Masses of freshmen are still paying for it. The Alpha Delts have a Sweetheart Song, the Phi Gam complex, and Margaret Lehmann.

PHI GAMMA DELTA

Phi Gamma Delta was founded sometime last week by a drunken sailor and two grind organ monkeys. The colors are white and old rose (symbolic of the bloodshot eyes of the members). At the last census there were 752 active chapters, although the number has probably trebled since.

The Wittenberg subsidiary of Phi Gamma Delta annually pledges 35 yearlings, of whom 2 or 3 are initiated. The Phi Gams have All-American Marty, a Cadillac sedan, and the Alpha Delts.

ALPHA XI DELTA

This society for the advancement of rose cultivation was founded A. D., O tempora, O mores! It was named Alpha Xi Delta under the delusion that the Greek letters signified "Body by Fisher." The colors are lipstick red and Lucky Strike white.

The local branch office has been designated the best chapter of Alpha Xi Delta. (Parson, breathe a prayer for the national order). The goils have a scholarship cup, Margaret Sittler, and a first mortgage on a Nash roadster.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Sired by Southern carpet-baggers and damned by everybody, Pi Kappa Alpha came into existence way back when hoop skirts surrounded yards of flannel petticoats. The colors are ultra-violet and infra-red. The number of active chapters is only surpassed by the number of passive members. The meaning of the Greek letters might be "E Pluribus Unum"—but it ain't. Its "Darwin was right."

Local Pi Kaps proudly refer to themselves as "One of the very few northern chapters of an aristocratic Southern fraternity." Other Northerners murmur devoutly, "Thank God."

The boys have the inevitable curly-haired gift, a trick bon-fire for serenades, and a cannon in the front yard.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

One Eyed Connolly founded Alpha Tau Omega in a padded cell at Saint James Infirmary. Seventy-nine football players and Jack Johnson were the charter members. Johnson later resigned.

Fraternity colors are beer amber and creme de menthe green. The coat of arms includes ten footballs, two baseballs, five basketballs, and one textbook. The textbook is symbolic of athletes who have failed to make the grade.

At that, the A. T. O.'s have the basketball team, the football team, and the mighty Morris.

2. Alleged students return from vacation. New Year's resolutions go the way of all flesh.

14. Olson, Morris and Sweetland survived the recent cold spell.

21. Phi Psi house partially destroyed by fire. It seems that Bricker's clothes were burned—as was an insurance company.

22. Doc Schneider takes attendance in all classes.

27. First semester examinations and other national disasters occur. Alpha Theta Alpha men register joy. Other groups register: no hits, no runs.

28. Doctors Schneider and Van Riper consign examination papers to waste baskets.

February

3. One thousand students heap abuse on authorities who add $10.00 health fee to already exhorbitantly high tuition bills.

8. Pan-hell (O happy name!) entertains with tea dance at the Masonic Temple. Male undergraduate shifts chew to side of mouth and asks: "Where in hell is the tea?"

13. Freshmen, sophomores struggle in gym. Greek letter lodges receive annual house cleaning as high school seniors attend sessions of Blue Key's visitation week-end.

20. Installation of Pi Epsilon, national educational soror-

22. Earl Morris places in state oratorical contest. Olson and Sweetland applaud.

26. Greeks eat and smoke at Inter-fraternity smoker.

We Nominate for the Professorial Hall of Fame

Dr. C. Terence Pihlblad—Because he is a thinker; because he is a pedagogical iconoclast; because he is a thinker before a pedagogical iconcolast.

Joseph A. Sittler—Because he is a scholar and a gentleman. Because he is still young enough to write and speak charmingly cynical dissertations on life, and sex, and God. Because he is old enough to avoid undergraduate egocentrism.

Dr. J. Philip Schneider—Because he has not permitted the passing years to make maturity synonymous with conservatism. Because he is a teacher—not a cog in an educational machine. Because he does not take life too seriously.

Dr. Christian Van Riper—Because he is the possessor of a Phi Beta Kappa key . . . and a sense of humor! Because he is instructive . . . without being pedantic. Because he addresses his classes, "Future Rotarians."

"Bonny Blue" Coal is Guaranteed to Give Satisfaction

Bonny Blue

RED ASH

It is practically sootless and free from dirt in handling or in use. Especially recommended for both hot air and hot water furnaces, heating stoves, cook stoves and grates. A general purpose domestic fuel, low in ash; no clinkers or unburned coals are left in the fire box. It all burns up to a light fluffy red ash.

It pays to buy an advertised, trademarked brand of Coal

Song of Life

Life is a rhapsody out of the rain,
Life is blue harmony, throbbing with pain,
Life is exultant, a blaring refrain,
Life is a dirge—there is death in its strain.

Melody frantic, and futile, and old,
Little you tell me and much you withhold,
All of your drabness to me you unfold,
All of the tales that were best left untold.

Life seems unending, a song far ahead,
But it is finite—and some strains have fled,
They seemed to whisper to me as they sped,
"Brief is the song 'till you're dead, damn you, dead!"
